

PROGRAM-TO-PROGRAM ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

Wisconsin Technical College System (WTCS)

Criminal Justice
A.A.S. Criminal Justice

University of Wisconsin-Whitewater

College of Letters and Sciences

Baccalaureate Degree
Criminology

Law Enforcement & Investigation Track

1. Rationale:

The criminal justice programs at any Wisconsin Technical College and the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater, respectively, share a common goal of educating students so that they may pursue careers in Criminology and related professions.

2. Program-to-Program Transfer Courses*

Transfer credit will be awarded at UW-Whitewater for coursework on this articulation agreement upon successful completion of an AAS degree in an approved Criminal Justice program provided that a grade of "C" or better is earned. Students must seek a bachelor of arts or a bachelor of science degree in Criminology with an emphasis in Law Enforcement and Investigation.

3. UW-Whitewater General Education Course Options

Students who have successfully completed coursework in the Wisconsin Technical College System (WTCS) may be eligible to transfer up to 30 credits of general education course work. WTCS schools that offer the Liberal Arts Associate of Arts or Associate of Science may transfer up to 72 credits of general education.

809-172, Introduction to Diversity Studies is encouraged. This course will fulfill both the unique requirement in the Criminology Major and the diversity requirement at the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater.

4. Articulated Courses

The 18 credits (of the 36 required credits for this major) will be assigned in a block equivalency as described in the table below. Grades will appear as "S" (satisfactory) on the evaluation of transfer credits.

5. Additional Conditions

- 5.1. Students must meet all requirement for admission to UW-Whitewater
- 5.2. The UW-Whitewater baccalaureate candidate must also meet all of UW-Whitewater's University and College Degree Requirements
- 5.3. Program to Program transfer courses/credits are accepted only for the degree specified in this agreement. A change of major invalidates these courses/credits for transfer unless they are approved within some other Program to Program Articulation Agreement for a different major at UW-Whitewater.
- 5.4. This program to program agreement is outlined for the Law Enforcement and Investigation Track. If a student declares the Adults and Juvenile Corrections Track, CRIMJUS 321 will no longer be applied to their program.
- 5.5. Course equivalencies specified in this articulation agreement are subject to change in the event that the course curriculum of the WTCS or UW-Whitewater program undergoes revision.
- 5.6. Degree must be posted on official transcript to receive credits from the agreement.

This agreement is effective May 1, 2014 and will apply to students who complete the Criminal Justice A.A.S. degree after that date.
