5. SPECIAL NOTES

For information on University proficiency, breadth and core requirements, please refer to the transfer guide "Letters and Sciences - General Information for All Majors."

An approved minor is required for this major. See an advisor.

Certification to teach Political Science (or Broadfield Social Studies) is available. See the transfer guide for Secondary Education for additional information.

Transfer students must complete at least twelve (12) credits in Political Science at UW-Whitewater.

An approved minor is required for this major. Due to the close relationship between politics and business, a minor in Business is a good option.

Departmental policy requires each student majoring in Political Science to attend three public lectures or programs each year.

The department offers an internship to interested students, usually in the junior or senior year.

Pre-Law students are advised in the Political Science Department.
