Warhawk Adult Camp is designed for adults 21 and over with a NTPR rating between 3.0 and 4.5. Emphasis is placed on technique, repetition, strategy, competition, and fun. Evenings will be used for competition and high intensity drills. The camper to instructor ratio will be 4 to 1 and the camp will be limited to 48 participants.

Facilities
The camp will take place on our state-of-the-art 12 court complex. We also have a four court fieldhouse available in the event of inclement weather.

Camp Director: Frank Barnes
The Camp Director is UW-Whitewater’s Men’s and Women’s Head Tennis Coach, Frank Barnes. Coach Barnes has elevated UW-Whitewater’s tennis teams to the national level since he came on board in 2002. Coach Barnes is the long time camp director of the ever popular Warhawk Junior Tennis Camps. He has been named WIAC’s Coach of the Year multiple times. Coach Barnes is also a two-time National K-Swiss Pro of the Year for his work as Nakoma Country Club’s Tennis Director, developing one of the city’s largest summer tennis programs. In 2006, Barnes was honored twice for growing the game of tennis. He was named USTA’s Rollie Mueller President’s Award winner, and the USTA/ITA Community Service Award winner. The PTR honored him as the 2010 National Coach of the Year and the 2009 Wisconsin Member of the Year. He also coaches the Wisconsin District Cup 12 & under Team.
