HEAD COACH: Ned Shuck
Ned Shuck led the Warhawks to Conference, Regional, and NCAA Championships in 2015. There were 5 All-Americans and 6 Academic All-Americans on the team. Ned Shuck wrestled for the University of Iowa from 2000–2005. He spent four years as a high school head coach, two years as an assistant coach at Augsburg College where they won a National Championship in 2010. Prior to becoming a Warhawk, he was the head coach at Heidelberg University for three years. He has lead the MN Storm Cadet Nationals Freestyle camp, assisted the OH USA Cadet/Junior Nationals camps, and many others.

HEAD ASSISTANT COACH: Mike Kelly
- Head Assistant Coach — UW-Whitewater 2014 – Present
- Assistant Coach — UW-Parkside 2013–2014
- Head Assistant Coach — Harper College 2001–2012 (4X National Champs)
- FILA World Silver Medalist (Graspling) — 2012
- FILA Grand Prix Bronze Medalist (Graspling) — 2011
- Most Graspling World Medals in USA history

Areas covered in our camps include: mental preparation, strength and power-development, implementing new techniques, drilling techniques, situational wrestling, and hard wrestling. The camp is designed so athletes will get plenty of one-on-one instruction. About 2–3 weeks prior to the start of each camp, specific instructions for reporting to camp and what to bring will be emailed to participants.

Elite Camp
- July 8 – 11, 2015 • Grades 7-12
- Resident: $295 Commuter: $250
Going on its 14th year of helping to bring wrestlers to the “next level!” This overnight camp is intended to help experienced wrestlers advance their skills. The camp will cover multiple areas that are essential to becoming a champion wrestler. The unique part of the UW-Whitewater Elite Camp is the 4:1 camper-counselor ratio. Campers will be put in groups of four upon arrival and that group will have a counselor with them at all times and at all practice sessions.

Rookie Camp
- July 6 – 8, 2015 • Grades 7-12
- Resident: $200 Commuter: $150
Intended for those that are new to the sport of wrestling or are attending a wrestling camp for the first time. This overnight camp assures that campers will not get lost in the numbers and will get individual attention throughout each session the entire camp. The unique part of the UW-Whitewater Rookie Camp is the 4:1 camper-counselor ratio. Campers will be put in groups of four upon arrival and that group will have a counselor with them at all times and at all practice sessions.

Junior Commuter Camp
- July 6–8, 2015 • Grades K-6
- Commuter: $100
Junior Commuter Camp is a great experience for wrestlers of all levels. This camp is especially great for those who want to learn and refine the fundamental skills and techniques of wrestling and wrestling competition. The camp will focus on developing fundamentally-sound skills. Wrestlers will learn to develop good wrestling habits and develop an interest for the sport of wrestling. This is a commuter camp and parents are welcome to observe or can drop the kids off for the day and pick them up in the afternoon.

Team Camp
- June 28 – July 1, 2015 • Grades 7-12
- Resident: $295 Commuter: $250
The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Team Camp is focused on the individual wrestlers skill development and maximizing performances through team dual competitions and one-to-one technique feedback. Each team is assigned 1-2 coaches (UWW Coaches/Student-Athletes) that will coach and mentor the team in every technique session and dual meet competition. Following competitions, coaches evaluate team and individual performances and provide skill/drill instruction. UWW camp staff’s consistency with the team allows them to invest in each wrestler on the team in order to provide personalized development. High school coaches will also have breakout sessions with camp staff.

Facilities
The camps will be held in the Williams Center facilities of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, which contains a state-of-the-art training room, weight room, and several thousand square feet of gym space.

The residence halls are within walking distance of the Williams Center complex and instruction facilities. Campers will be housed two to a room. The dining halls are located in close proximity to the residence halls and serve three well-balanced meals daily to resident campers. Commuters for the residential camps will be entitled to lunch and dinner. These meals are included in the camp fee.

Juniors Commuter Camp
- $100

Rookie Camp
- $200

Elite Camp
- $295

Team Camp
- $295

The camp fee for each camp includes (room and board for the Rookie, Elite, and Team camp) insurance, instructional materials and camp t-shirt.

Each camper will be covered by a group accident insurance policy. The cost of insurance is included in the registration fee. The insurance includes primary coverage up to $7,500 and $300 maximum dental insurance. Insurance does not cover pre-existing injuries and is for accidents only. Every precaution will be taken to prevent accidents.

Fees & Insurance
- Junior Commuter Camp: $100
- Rookie Camp: $200
- Elite Camp: $295
- Team Camp: $295

Wisconsin coaches can also run commuter camps and pre-season clinics through UW-W. These camps and clinics are held at a host high school and vary in price and length.

“UW-Whitewater Commuter Camps make it easy to get your entire team more mat time and instruction. The UW-Whitewater coaching staff as well as their wrestlers come to you and teach in the familiarity of your own wrestling room. They set the tone with intense workouts and connect well with all of the kids. Wrestlers, parents, and coaches alike appreciate that!”

Frank Cuda, Head Coach of Kettle Moraine High School

If you are interested in hosting a commuter camp, contact head coach Ned Shuck at 262.472.1867 or shuckn@uww.edu.
