

SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY

Creating Diverse Leadership

INFORMATION SESSION

Come explore graduate preparation and opportunities in School Psychology

- Learn about how school psychologists are leaders and change agents
- Meet students and faculty in the program
- Find out how to apply and to receive support
- Hear about what it is like to be a graduate student in the program
- Tour the program facilities
- Have fun!

WHERE:

Laurentide Hall, Room 4012
University of Wisconsin-Whitewater

WHEN:

Monday, October 17, 2016
1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

WHO: The UW-Whitewater School Psychology program welcomes students from all backgrounds, particularly those from groups who have traditionally been underrepresented in graduate programs. We encourage all to attend and look forward to a greater exchange of perspectives in our program.

Please register by October 10, 2016 at <https://form.jotform.com/62644503859160>

For More Information:

Contact Dr. Christine Neddenriep
262.472.1850 neddenrc@uww.edu