Spotlight on…

RACEETH 496-Special Studies: Hmong American History and Culture

NEW COURSE FOR SPRING 2015
Mondays 5-7:30pm.

What will we study? This course will provide an introduction to….
- Hmong American history
- The history of the Hmong language
- Family structure
- Generational and gender roles
- Religious beliefs and practices
- Literary and artistic expressions of Hmong Americans

Additional Course Component
- Two-day travel to the Twin Cities to explore Hmong cultural sites

Special Course Fee: $100.00 for the two-day travel experience

For more information, contact:
Elizabeth Kim,
Professor of English
kime@uww.edu
(262) 472-1269

Mai Yer Yang,
Instructor, Race & Ethnic Studies
vangmy05@uww.edu
(262) 472-7168
Fulfills the 3-credit U.S. Racial/Ethnic Diversity Course Requirement for all undergraduates