II. Justification for action

The Geography of South America (GEOGRPY 363) has traditionally been taught at UWW as a separate course from the Geography of Middle America (GEOGRPY 365); however, GEOGRPY 363 has not been offered for several years. In order to revive the content for GEOGRPY 363 the Sponsor of this change will combine material from this course with GEOGRPY 365 to create a revised GEOGRPY 365, which will be titled Geography of Latin America (please see form #4A for details of this course revision, including a revised syllabus that includes material from GEOGRPY 363).
