UW-W MCGRAW AWARD FOR STUDENT EXCELLENCE
College of Letters & Sciences Application Process

The award is offered in cooperation with the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Student Association and Faculty. The recipient will receive a $400 honorarium donated by the family of Arthur G. McGraw. Nominees for the award shall be chosen from the current year's graduating classes (August, December, and May) and shall come from a regular Bachelor's degree program offered by any of the four colleges of the University. Students must have completed at least 60 credits from UW-Whitewater with a minimum overall G.P.A. in their major field of 3.5. Transfer students must meet the 3.5 G.P.A in academic work transferred as well as courses completed at UW-Whitewater. The G.P.A. will be computed on all collegiate work completed. Students must have been or currently be active in university, college and/or community activities or organizations. The University selection committee will be guided in the final selection by Arthur G. McGraw's wish that the award be given to "An outstanding, well rounded UW-W graduate ready for the world of professional work and one who potentially appears ready to contribute in a positive way to society."
