

“Exploring the possibilities of your future”

Sponsored by the Center for Students with Disabilities

Begin planning for life after high school by learning about disability services in a college setting. Presentations will include information about admissions criteria, disability documentation and services, living on campus, and panel discussions with current UW-Whitewater students. Tour the UW-Whitewater campus and explore on and off campus resources at our resource fair. Let us help you get a head start on your future!

PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED AND SPACE IS LIMITED

This event will provide participants with an opportunity to explore the world of post-secondary education and the resources and services available at this level. Through speakers from various campus and off-campus resources, participants will gather information during the following break-out sessions:

Admissions

An opportunity to find out additional information from Admissions Staff on being admitted as a freshman or transfer student.

Autism Spectrum

Transition to college for students on the Autism Spectrum. What students, parents, and others should know.

Campus Tours

An opportunity to find out more about the UW-Whitewater Campus by taking a talking and walking tour with campus assistants.

Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD) Services

An overview of the services provided by the Center for Students with Disabilities and how to access those accommodations and services. Information on documentation guidelines is included in this presentation.

Differences Between High School and College/Academic Accommodations

A comparison of the differences between accommodations and services for college students with disabilities versus high school students with disabilities. Session will also include an overview of widely-used academic accommodations.

Living on Campus

What is living on campus like? Do I get to pick my roommate? How do I fit all of my stuff into my room? Answers to these questions and more.

UW-W LIFE Program

Learn about a new postsecondary, on-campus program for young adults with intellectual disabilities.
