

UMHC APPLICATION

(Upper Midwest Honors Conference)

When: March 22-24, 2018

Where: Graceland University, Lamoni, IA

UW-Whitewater's UHP Deadline: February 1, 2018

Congratulations! You are applying for an opportunity to engage in a high-impact practice of participating in a regional collegiate Honors conference. This experience will be academically enriching and have the added bonus of being a résumé builder!

Projects eligible for presentation at the UMHC include an exceptional H-Option Project, a research or creative project originating in an Honors course/section, and an applied project that has enhanced the University Honors Program, including its affiliated communities, the Honors Learning Community and the Honors Student Association.

If your application is selected by both the UW-W's Honors Council and the UMHC, the expenses related to your conference participation (registration fee, lodging, transportation, meals, the cost of creating a poster, etc.) will be covered by the University Honors Program (UHP).

Your responses to the questions below should be as clear and as detailed as possible.
