2 Only one Honors Study Abroad Award will be awarded to an Honors student during his/her tenure at UW-W.

3 Only Destinations outside of Western Europe, Australia, and New Zealand are generally considered by the field of international education to be underrepresented/non-traditional study abroad destinations. Source: UW-W Center for Global Education

4 Students in STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) fields are considered to be in underrepresented fields in study abroad. Reviewers may also award points for students in UW-W majors that are underrepresented in study abroad or for whom their major presents challenges to studying abroad (e.g. education and other fields with very specific graduation/license requirements).
