Extension Procedure for J-1 Students and Visiting Professors/Research Scholars

Permission to stay in the U.S. ends on the expiration date of the student/scholar’s Form DS-2019, unless the card is marked “D/S” (duration of status). In this case, the student/scholar’s permission to stay is 30 days after the end date on the DS-2019. However, the extension must be completed before the student/scholar’s current DS-2019 end date.

ELIGIBILITY:

Students are eligible to apply for an extension if they:

1. Are studying full time.
2. Making satisfactory progress.
3. Are maintaining their status as a J-1 Exchange Visitor.
4. Have adequate funding for the period of the proposed extension.

OR

1. Have completed their program of study.
2. Are maintaining their status as a J-1 Exchange Visitor.
3. Have adequate funding for the period of the proposed extension.
4. Want to participate in academic training.
5. Have a job offer (see information on Academic Training).
6. Are participating in an authorized Academic Training program and within the established time limits, need an extension to finish the program.

Visiting Professors and Research Scholars are eligible to apply for an extension if they:

1. Are working toward the objective shown on their most recent Form DS-2019.
2. Are maintaining their status as a J-1 Exchange Visitor.
3. Can demonstrate adequate funding for the period of the proposed extension.
4. The period of the extension is subject to review and approval by the Responsible Officer in the Center for Global Education. A maximum of three years is allowed by 22 CFR 62.20(j)(1).
PROCEDURE:

1. The process for the extension of the DS-2019 should begin at least 30 days before the end date on the current DS-2019.

2. The student/scholar must contact their home institution and obtain permission from their advisor/employer to extend their stay. An email or letter from the advisor/employer needs to be presented at the time the extension application is made.

3. The student/scholar must also contact their exchange advisor/host department (person who wrote original letter of invitation) at UW-Whitewater to obtain permission to extend their stay. An email or letter from the advisor/host department needs to be presented at the time the extension application is made.

4. Student/scholar must obtain financial certification from their sponsor for the duration of their extension period. Obtain a Certification of Finances Form from the Center for Global Education.

5. The student/scholar must make an appointment with the Responsible Officer at the Center for Global Education to complete the extension process.
   b. The Responsible Officer will have you fill out the Extension Request Form after reviewing and approving the extension.

After student/scholar has turned in all the necessary paperwork the Responsible Officer will do the following in the Student/Scholar’s SEVIS record:

1. Update finances and any other information that needs changing.
2. Enter a new program end date (must update finances before entering new program end date).
3. In the “Remarks” section indicate explanation for extension.
4. Submit the SEVIS record.
5. Print the new DS-2019 that reflects the extension.
6. Sign the DS-2019

Note: If the extension is not done in this order, with the extension action being last, the DS-2019 will not say “Extend an ongoing program” when it is printed. It is not possible to update finances in the same screen as the extension of the end date.
