

LEAP Action Summary Educational Foundations

LEAP Workshop Year: 2011 Action dates: Spring 2011-Spring 2012	For more information, contact: Anne Durst, x4874, dursta@uww.edu
Anne Durst	Educational Foundations
Mark Jonas
Amy Shuffelton
General Goal: Overarching Objective: To liberally educate our students so that they can become world-class teachers who liberally educate their own students.
Planned Actions: Spring 2011: Introduce the LEAP materials to our students. Fall 2011: Implement and enhance Writing-Intensive practices in our courses: Continued discussion of LEAP and High Impact Practices: Begin discussion about LEAP with our college: Spring 2012: Implement and enhance a variety of HIPs in our department courses, while continuing efforts of Fall 2011: Ongoing Spring 2011-Spring 2012: Refine our department assessment tool aimed at measuring our progress towards our LEAP goals. Become a resource for LEAP for the College of Education and Professional Studies.
Deliverables, Completed Actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Piloted assessment tool based on LEAP essential learning outcomes</li> <li>• Engaged in department discussions of LEAP and served as college resources on LEAP aims and goals</li> <li>• Delivered a presentation on LEAP work at COEPS retreat</li> <li>• Participated in LEAP Day event, and as an outcome of that, a project created by students of Mark Jonas was highlighted by AAC&amp;U and the students were invited to a national conference</li> </ul>
Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•</li> </ul>	