DEPARTMENT PRESENTS...

TWO EVENINGS OF READINGS

AMERICAN BEOWULF

WRITTEN BY KENT FORSBERG

DECEMBER 16, 2013 | 7:30 P.M

HICKLIN STUDIO THEATRE
GREENHILL CENTER OF THE ARTS

This will be the first public reading of this haunting and beautiful new script. A uniquely American story about family, loss, love and warriors.

THIS PRISON WHERE I LIVE

WRITTEN BY ANGELA IANNONE

DECEMBER 17, 2013 | 7:30 P.M

HICKLIN STUDIO THEATRE
GREENHILL CENTER OF THE ARTS

The second play in The Edwin Booth Trilogy, this play concerns the events surrounding the assassination attempt made on the actor Edwin Booth.

The reading will feature UW-Whitewater alum Jake Lesh, who created the role of Edwin Booth in the UW-Whitewater production "The Edwin Booth Company Presents" and current UW-Whitewater student Cory Hagen, who created the role of John Wilkes in the original workshop of "This Prison Where I Live."

BOTH EVENINGS ARE FREE!

PLEASE COME CELEBRATE THESE ORIGINAL VOICES WITH THE THEATRE/DANCE DEPARTMENT!
