

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME

To learn more www.edu/learningcommunities

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME IN A UW-WHITewater LEARNING COMMUNITY

What is a Learning Community?

A Learning Community is a group of about 25 students who share some of the same classes. They typically also live in the same residence halls, which makes studying easier. Students involved in Learning Communities participate in a variety of activities such as field trips, faculty dinners, community service and much, much more!

Why should I join?

Want to learn the ropes of college more quickly? Become a leader on campus? You can do this by joining a Learning Community. Students in Learning Communities have higher GPAs, larger social networks and more connections with faculty.

NEW LEARNING COMMUNITIES ARE CREATED EVERY YEAR TO FIT THE INTERESTS OF STUDENTS.

What Learning Communities can I join?

EACH COLLEGE SPONSORS a variety of Learning Communities that change annually. Below is a sample of typical communities available to you. Check our website for the most up to date list of Learning Communities.

LEGAL EAGLES is great for students interested in pre-law and criminal justice.

Business majors love the Learning Community called EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS.

HONORS CONNECTIONS is excellent for Honors students.

You can LIVE&LEARN in this group designed for education majors.

Communication Sciences and Disorders majors can MAKE A DIFFERENCE in the lives of others in this Learning Community.

If you would like to focus on academic success, STEPPING STONES is for you.

Social Work, Psychology and other helping professions will love being in HEARTS IN ACTION.

Politics, cultures, action, spoken word, and performance - find your own voice and express it in the hiphop collective.

Join TECHNICALLY SPEAKING, if Technology and Management Computer Systems interest you.

If you are a science major you will want to join ARCHIMEDES.

Comments from students

"My experience in the Learning Community has been nothing but positive."

"The best part...is having some of your classes with the same people."

"Learning Communities...Truly build friends for a lifetime."

"Out of everything on campus, I'm most excited about all of the opportunities to succeed. This campus is out to help anyone achieve his or her dreams and goals."

TO SIGN UP?

Go to our website:
uww.edu/learningcommunities

Questions? Email us at learncommunities@uww.edu