

Economics Scholarships

John Dominguez Scholarship

Eligible applicants should have a declared major in Economics and have junior standing at the time of award. Applicants must have completed Economics 201 and Economics 202, and have at least two more Economics courses either completed, in progress, or some combination thereof. The Dominguez Scholarship has a minimum GPA requirement of 3.3 and favors students with interests in International Economics studies.

Amount: $500

How to Apply: An email announcement containing the application is sent to Economics majors. Completed applications can be emailed to the department chair, Jeff Heinrich, at heinricj@uww.edu. Hardcopy application forms are also available in the Economics Department Main Office (Hyland Hall 4304) and should be returned there when completed.

Jerome Laurent Scholarship

To be eligible for consideration, students should have a declared major in Economics by the time of application. Applicants must have completed Economics 201 and Economics 202, and have at least two more Economics courses either completed, in progress, or some combination thereof. The Laurent Scholarship has a minimum GPA requirement of 3.3.

Amount: $500

How to Apply: An email announcement containing the application is sent to economics majors. Completed applications can be emailed to the department chair, Jeff Heinrich, at heinricj@uww.edu. Hardcopy application forms are also available in the Economics Department Main Office (Hyland Hall 4304) and should be returned there when completed.

James Hellie Scholarship

To be eligible for consideration, students should have a declared major in Economics by the time of application. Applicants must have completed Economics 201 and Economics 202, and have at least two more Economics courses either completed, in progress, or some combination thereof. The Hellie Scholarship has no specified minimum GPA requirements.

Amount: $500

How to Apply: An email announcement containing the application is sent to economics majors. Completed applications can be emailed to the department chair, Jeff Heinrich, at heinricj@uww.edu. Hardcopy application forms are also available in the Economics Department Main Office (Hyland Hall 4304) and should be returned there when completed.

Economics Department Scholarship for an Economics major

To be eligible for consideration, students should have a declared major in Economics by the time of application. Applicants must have completed Economics 201 and Economics 202, and additionally have at least two more Economics courses either completed, in progress, or some combination thereof. The Scholarship Committee awards scholarships at its discretion.

Amount: $200

How to Apply: An email announcement containing the application is sent to economics majors. Completed applications can be emailed to the department chair, Jeff Heinrich, at heinricj@uww.edu. Hardcopy application forms are also available in the Economics Department Main Office (Hyland Hall 4304) and should be returned there when completed.

Economics Department Scholarship for an Economics minor

To be eligible for consideration, students should have a declared major in Economics by the time of application. Applicants must have completed Economics 201 and Economics 202, and additionally have at least two more Economics courses either completed, in progress, or some combination thereof. The Scholarship Committee awards scholarships at its discretion.

Amount: $100

How to Apply: An email announcement containing the application is sent to economics minors. Completed applications can be emailed to the department chair, Jeff Heinrich, at heinricj@uww.edu. Hardcopy application forms are also available in the Economics Department Main Office (Hyland Hall 4304) and should be returned there when completed.