"Veterans are impressive, because what they have done at their age is usually five or ten years ahead of civilian peers in terms of leadership and responsibility."

-Kelly Perdew (Former Army Officer)
2nd Season Winner
The Apprentice

"Successful Store Leadership Candidates Possess 4-10 years as a commissioned military officer"

CAMERON-BROOKS, INC.

"It is significant! The military, more than most other careers, gives you diverse and heavy responsibility very early in your career. You gain a level of experience that most companies find hard to duplicate in the first 4 to 8 years of corporate life. You bring us an immediate ability to produce results. You also provide us strong peer and subordinate leadership skills. Overall, it has been impossible to find a candidate better suited for Corporate America than the Military Officer"
