RELEVANT AND RETOOLED WORKSHOP

Friday, April 13th | 8:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. | Esker Dining Hall 118

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:

Discover tools, techniques, and strategies to better serve our adult and nontraditional students. Learn ways to maximize learning opportunities to ensure student success and increase persistence/graduation rates of UW-Whitewater's nontraditional population.

KEYNOTE PRESENTER:

Rovy Branon, UW-Extension Associate Dean for online learning and technology will challenge you to examine current trends in educational innovation and show how you can use state-of-the-art technology to reach adult learners.

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHTS:

- WebEx technology demonstration of "Live Advising Meeting"
– George Jura, (UW-W ICIT)
- How to create a learning portfolio – Credit for Prior Learning
– Dr. Lauren Smith (UW-W Associate Professor)
- Discussion on changing demographics and the challenges that nontraditional students experience
– Lynn Becker (UW-W Assistant Director of Admissions)
– Lynn Smith (UW-W Adult Nontraditional Coordinator)
- A panel of nontraditional students and instructors will share practices that help or hinder the adult student's success in the classroom. Students on the panel will also share some of their experiences that they have had on this campus.
