

Directions to Anderson Library 2254, the meeting room for the Faculty Senate

2254 is among the International Education offices. To reach these offices you need to enter the southern most entrance on the east side of the Anderson Library building. “International Education” is printed on the door. Go up the stairs and enter the International Education offices. Go down the hall to 2254, on your right.

