A Legend at Young Auditorium

On Sunday, October 18, 2009 at 7:30 p.m. the Horizon Family presents The Legend of Sleepy Hollow at Young Auditorium. This program is supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and the National Endowment for the Arts. Tickets are available by calling 262-472-2222, or purchase on-line at www.uww.edu/youngauditorium.

Just in time for Halloween we are visited by the scholarly Ichabood Crane, the brawny Brom Bones, the lovely Katrina Van Tassel, the Residents of Tarry Town and the Headless Horseman, as they create a story made famous by the legend. This autumnal classic is faithful to the original story written by Washington Irving in 1819 and will thrill and chill without being too scary.

Theatre IV is a nonprofit, professional touring children's theatre. Since 1975 they've toured from Wisconsin to Florida and Texas to Maine while also presenting lavish productions in their home city of Richmond, Va. They provide outstanding educational entertainment designed to tour and innovative instructional programs that enrich our nation's schools. During 2009 - 2010 they will perform live before over 1/2 million children, teens, parents and teachers across the America. Their Artistic Director, Bruce Miller, received the Leadership in Arts Instruction Award from the Virginia Board of Education and the Commission for the Arts. Bruce Miller and their Managing Director, Phil Whiteway, received Virginia's 2008 Governor's Award for the Arts for Theatre IV. No fall is complete without a thrilling afternoon with the characters of Tarry Town!

Come and have some haunted fun with The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, at the Young Auditorium. Tickets are $14/$2/$10 gen. public (UW-W students ½ off gen. public prices) and available by calling 262-472-2222. Or purchase online at www.uww.edu/youngauditorium.
