LOFTS
If you ordered a loft prior to Aug. 11th, it will already be set up for you in your room. Loft orders placed after Aug. 11th will need to be picked up. Check move-in day signage for where to pick up your loft. Rules, regulations and additional information about lofts are available on the Residence Life website.

Lofts are available for rent at www.bedloft.com.
If you have any questions, call (866) 651-5638 or (217) 351-5502.

BEDDING
Mattress sizes are all 36” x 80”, so you will need to purchase extra long twin size sheets (available at department stores). National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH), sells linens to students. For more information about purchasing linens from NRHH, call (800) 957-4338 or go to www.rhh.org/wwh.

FURNITURE REMOVAL
Removal of university furniture is prohibited, and all furniture must remain in the apartments and common areas to which it has been allocated.

EARLY ARRIVALS
As a general rule, students are not allowed into the apartments prior to the official opening date in the fall unless the student is affiliated with a University-sponsored activity (athletic participation, campus employment, etc.) Requests for an early check-in should come from the appropriate University sponsor.

Some individuals may face specific circumstances that may require an early check-in to the apartments. For students approved for early arrival, there will be a non-refundable charge of $15 per day prior to the start of the Residence Life contract which begins August 29th. Requests made after Friday, August 16th will be assessed an additional one-time administrative fee of $20. Please realize that early arrival check-in may be refused for any individual who fails to provide prior notice.

Additional early arrival information can be found on the Residence Life website.

Early arrivals will check-in at the 1st floor desk in Goodhue Hall, unless previous arrangements have been made by the university sponsor.

TECHNOLOGY
Cambridge provides residents with an analog cable television lineup and wired internet service. Cable television services and rates/fees that are available to Cambridge residence hall students may vary as the property owner is responsible for any changes to these services and not the University or Residence Life. ResNET will provide wireless routers and support for you to get connected to the internet. Internet access is provided by the property owner. If the provided internet access proves inadequate for your use, you and your roommates may choose to contract with Charter or ATT for internet access at your expense.

Fox Meadows provides residents with an analog cable television lineup and wireless internet service. Cable television services and rates/fees that are available to Fox Meadows residence hall students may vary as the property owner is responsible for any changes to these services and not the University or Residence Life. ResNET will provide support for you to get connected to the internet. Internet access is provided by the property owner.
