

UW-WHITewater HISTORY DEPARTMENT
SENIOR RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Tuesday, May 13, 2014
6:00-8:00pm

Meet others on the history major path.
Discover what Senior Seminar is really all about.
Find out what fellow history majors have been researching.

ATTEND ONE OF THE CONFERENCE PANELS, 6:00-7:45

Followed by Light Refreshments & Conversation – LT 3rd floor lounge - 7:45-8:15ish

Panel 1: WHITEWATER IN THE '60s: a Regional Campus Goes Radical [LT 4012]

Chair / Commenter: Amber Moulton, James Levy & Karl Brown

David Ackatz & Courtney Knowles, "Lifestyle of Whitewater Students, Pre-Unrest"
Doug Roehl, "Change in the 60s at Whitewater"
Christopher Leistra & Mary Thomas, "Racial Unrest and the Basketball Incident of 1969"
Ally Kitten & Eli Shallenberger, "The Whitewater Four"
Andrew Kuehnman & Joe Easterday, "The Plot to Plunge Whitewater into Darkness"

Panel 2: WORDS MATTER: Legislating Sovereignty, Selling Pens, & Finding Meaning in Language [LT 1210]

Chair / Commenter: Tony Gulig, Adam Paddock & Molly Patterson

Elizabeth Muetz, "Tribal Sovereignty and the ICWA"
Lea Staedtler, "Indian Child Welfare Act"
Paulina Rieder, "Positive Impact of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act"
Kyle White, "The Purpose of Parker: A Study of Change and Influence During the Duofold Age"
Megan Wehse, "Semantic Satiation and the Comprehension of Emotional Language"

- ❖ Concurrent Sessions (multiple panels at the same time).
- ❖ Each presentation will be 12-15 minutes, addressing –research topic and question, research process, research sources, thesis, samples of supporting evidence, research triumphs & tribulations.
- ❖ Faculty Chair and Commenter will introduce each presenter and lead post-presentation Q & A