HADLEY G. KLUG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Instructions

This scholarship was established in memory of Hadley G. Klug by his wife, Carol A. Klug; his son, Gregory A. Klug; and his daughter, Leanne Klug Anderson '92. Hadley taught for 36 years at UW-Whitewater in the Department of Sociology, making significant contributions to the University. During that time, he served 20 years on the Faculty Senate where he took on numerous assignments including Senate Secretary. He was a popular and well-respected educator and was awarded the Excellence in Teaching Award in 1999. In his quiet way, he served as a mentor to all. He served as a Master Advisor for his department and volunteered to advise undeclared students. He was awarded the status of Emeritus Professor of Sociology in 2006 when he retired.

The scholarship amount is $450 to be used for tuition. For eligibility, students must be a full-time junior or senior student at the time of the award; be a Sociology major; have a Sociology GPA of 3.0 or higher, possess and maintain an overall minimum GPA of 3.0, and be eligible to join the Alpha Kappa Delta honor society. In the event the recipient fails to join the Alpha Kappa Delta honor society, voluntarily discontinues his or her UW-W education, or fails to remain in good academic standing, (s)he shall forfeit all rights of the scholarship and the money shall revert back to the fund.

Applications must include the following:

1. A completed application form. (Application forms are available online at www.uww.edu/cls/scholar_awards.);

2. A letter of recommendation from a faculty member in the student's major; and
