

IronPort Spam Filter Settings

Updated on 3/12/19

OVERVIEW

This guide will walk you through the steps to modify your spam filtering settings

Step 1

Navigate to <https://password.uww.edu> using your web browser.

Select Log In and enter your UWW credentials.

Step 2

Select Identity Service Request.

Applications

Search by name or description

Home items

 My Approvals View my 0 Identity Manager approval ta..	 Identity Service Req.. Request permissions and other resource..	 My Request History View my request history
---	---	--

Select IronPort Spam Filtering.

Requests

New Request

To request a resource or permission, select any available resource listed. To request multiple items, select the (New Request) button.

Email and Privacy

Adjust Quota Limit Adjust your mailbox storage quota	Warhawk4Life Graduating UW-Whitewater students and ..	Ironport spam filter.. Manage your spam filter level
--	---	--

Step 3

Set your spam filtration to either High, Medium, or Low and click Submit.

Ironport spam filtering

---

Manage your spam filter level

Ironport_request

Press "Submit" to request or modify your quarantine level.
*All fields marked by * are mandatory.*

Email account holders have a spam filtration service called Ironport to help manage junk email. You may adjust the spam filtration level to high (blocks the most spam), medium or low using the form below.

---

Your spam filtration selection: *