General Goal:

The general goal of the Major Declaration LEAP team is to develop a more comprehensive exploratory process for first-year and undeclared students through the Academic Advising & Exploration Center (AAEC). We hope to complete this through a collaborative effort with the multiple offices at UW-Whitewater that work with exploring students.

Planned Actions:

Spring 2015

- A. Academic Advising and Exploration Center (AAEC)
 - a. Add LEAP words to exploration action plan for students
 - b. Update exploration checklist for advisors
- B. Career and Leadership Development (CLD)
 - a. Understand and explore CLDs role with career exploration and to come up with an overall plan that will give each office the best ability to improve exploration
- C. First Year Experience (FYE)
 - a. Connect with FYE to incorporate CareerLocker (a website that has a series of questionnaires' that students take to give them ideas of majors/careers that compare to their interests) in New Student Seminar courses
- D. Counselor Education Graduate Program (Counselor Ed)
 - a. Reach out to the Counselor Ed graduate program to evaluate their career exploration class and how AAEC can integrate into the exploration process

2015-2016
