

WHEREAS it was reported at the Chancellor's Committee on Inclusive Excellence in May of 2013, that Classified employees requested they be provided an alternative place, or "safe outlet" when questioning inequities, work issues, and incidents without fear of retaliation; and

WHEREAS the Chancellor at UW-Whitewater referred the above issue for discussion by the Classified Staff Advisory Council; and

WHEREAS the office of Human Resources & Diversity is an authority to which employees may report to, for all work issues, incidents, and inequities,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

That the Classified Staff Advisory Council work with the UW-Whitewater office of Human Resources & Diversity to clarify the definition of a "safe outlet" regarding inequities and reporting work issues and incidents for Classified Staff, to decide whether changes in policies and procedures should be considered, and to disseminate information as necessary to the Classified Staff.
