

Evaluation Report for Program Review Face to Face Meeting University of Wisconsin-Whitewater: Business Administration (MBA), 2024-2025

The review team's final result was "without qualification." Therefore, a face-to-face meeting is optional and only necessary if requested by the program and associated department. The MBA program, in consultation with the College Graduate Committee, chose not to convene the Face-to-Face meeting.

Recommended Actions:

Recommended Action #1

Respond to how the group will assess the impact of their "diversity of thought and experience" initiatives on the program's student access and inclusion.

Recommended Action #2

Describe the process for implementing curriculum modernization and market competitive offerings across the entire program to address the items critical to the program's success.

Recommended Result:

Continuation without qualification
