

UW-Whitewater Club Sports

Dues Information & Agreement

Return form to room 100

Club Sports staff will file form accordingly

Each individual club recognized by the Office of Recreation Sports & Facilities has the option to collect member dues. The intent to collect dues should be clearly stated by clubs in their constitution and/or budget. Clubs may also come to any type of agreement with its general membership. All members participating within a club who has elected to collect dues should complete the Dues Information & Agreement. Each member should sign this form prior to being active with the club in all activities so all parties are on the same page regarding financial obligations and expectations. If a club charges member dues and a member has not signed this agreement, they may be subject to receiving ineligible status, which means members may not practice, travel, compete, receive reimbursement and/or receive equipment from the specific club mentioned below.

If a member has not signed this agreement and is found to have been participating with the club mentioned below, individual club leadership will be held accountable and further action may be taken at the discretion of administrative staff. If a member has signed this agreement and has not fulfilled their obligation to pay dues or notify club leadership of their intent to pay dues within a reasonable timeline, club leadership, club advisors and the Office of Recreation Sports & Facilities reserves the right to request a hold on the individual's official UW-Whitewater account. All decisions rendered by the Assistant Director of Club Sports are final.

All dues paid via check should be written out to "UW-Whitewater [Club Name]." Dues should be collected by club leaders and submitted to the Assistant Director for proper processing/advisement.
