Segregated Fee Explanation:

Activity Fee : supports various campus activities such as student organizations, organized activities, child care center and municipal services.

Student Center : supports facilities, services and programs at the James Connor University Center.

Health Center : supports quality health services (medical, public health, and wellness.outreach), addressing the unique needs of college students with an emphasis on enhancing the well-being, academic success, and dignity of clients in a confidential, efficient, and cost effective manner.

Sports Programming & Facilities : supports organized sports and recreation programs, stadium, field house, and related facilities and fields.

Leadership Development : supports an administrative organization that provides an integration of programs and activities that promote successful, positive, and productive citizens of our campus and beyond.

Capital Projects : supports costs of construction of large fixed assets such as sidewalks, buildings and parking lots.

Textbook Rental : supports a rental service that provides most textbooks for undergraduate students, so purchased books are not necessary.

Summer segregated fees are 1/2 of the amount for other terms.
