Hello Warhawk Family!

Welcome back everyone for the Spring 2019 academic semester. For those of you that have been off and enjoyed time with family and friends, I hope you have been invigorated and ready to start a new Spring semester.

With so many changes going on it is absolutely essential that we take our time to communicate with everyone and realize the importance of working collegially.

We appreciate your dedication to be at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and we are looking forward to a stellar semester. We are so proud of the work that everyone does on this campus.

Happy New Year!

Benefits Bulletin SPOTLIGHT

Just like many of you and your offices you have student employees that you work with. I would like to introduce you to Aubrey Maciosek that works with me in Benefits. Aubrey is invaluable to me, the one responsible for organizing and executing many of the benefit events on campus. You may have had the pleasure of speaking with her or working with her if you called or stopped in with Benefit inquiries.

My name is Aubrey Maciosek and I am a senior graduating in May of 2019. I am majoring in General Management with an emphasis in Healthcare Management. I have been working in the Human Resources office for just over two years now, primarily supporting the Benefits Specialist. On a daily basis I assist with answering benefit questions via email, phone, and in person. I have also helped organize the past two Benefits Fairs, on campus vendor visits, new employee benefit orientations, and biometric screenings. I distribute benefit applications to vendors and anything else Stephanie needs help with.

NAVITUS Update

As of January 2, 2019, if you take a Level 3, brand-name drug that has a generic alternative at a lower tier, your doctor must submit an ‘FDA MedWatch Form’ to Navitus or you will end up paying more for your prescription. These drugs are sometimes called “dispensed-as-written”, or “DAW-1” drugs.

To see how this can affect what you pay at the pharmacy, check out the Level 3 Cost Sharing Example Resource Sheet, which is a part of our Saving on Your Prescriptions eLearning.

Note: This change does not apply to retirees with Medicare.

New Recruitment Approval Request Form in the Works

The new Recruitment Approval Request Form is almost ready!!! As of Friday (1/11/19), the “draft” received additional comments.

The new form is designed to streamline the pre-recruitment process [not add additional work] to remove barriers and delays in initiating recruitments. The Recruitment Approval Request Form will replace all current versions of recruitment approval forms and will be the standard request form for use across all divisions on campus [please remove all previous forms from your computer]. Upon receipt, your Talent Acquisition liaison and AA/EO Officer will review position details, AA/EEO, title and salary, etc., and send forth for Budget review and appropriate signatures. The new form is in anticipation of the “new and improved” Recruitment Approval Request soon to be in an electronic format. HR will share additional information with the link as soon as the form is available.

Rehires Reminder – Spring Semester is Approaching!

This is a reminder to initiate rehires for employees who were on fixed terminal contracts for the Fall term or a previous term. If these individuals are returning for the Spring, please get these to HR no later than 15 days prior to the rehire date.

Please refer to our E-Rehire Application to initiate the process: http://www.uww.edu/adminaffairs/hr/rehire.

To All Colleges:
Margaret Wheeler, Immigration Specialist, is available to meet with Assistant Professor position finalists who have indicated they will “now or in the future require immigration sponsorship.”

Margaret’s contact information:
Office of Human Resources & Diversity

262/472-1494 (Office)
262/472/1024 (Main)

Brief overview and discussion points will include:

1) UW-Whitewater has a large selection of immigration sponsorship options. Some are as extensive, or more extensive, than options provided by other universities.

2) UW-Whitewater’s immigration process, timeline, and fees paid (by UW-Whitewater).

The discussion of immigration sponsorship is often an important component of the decision-making process for international candidates.

I welcome all inquiries and want to continue supporting the needs of our Campus.

PAYROLL: Notes & Reminders

Leave Balances and Earnings Statement Changes

UW employees can now view both current pay period and projected absence balances. The projected absence balances view is a new feature. Absence balances will also be updated more frequently (once entered, approved and updated via overnight processing) giving employees more current absence balance information.

New allocations of Vacation and Personal Holiday hours for University Staff will be loaded when the January A payroll processes. Employees will see these in their leave balances beginning January 14th.

To view absences balances, log into the MyUW portal and launch the ‘Time and Absence’ tile. See “Time and Absence Help” for tip sheets and instructions.

Beginning January 2019, leave-eligible employees may have noticed they no longer see the Leave Balances section formerly located at the bottom of the current earnings statement. This change took effect on the January 2, 2019 paycheck for employees paid monthly, and on the January 3, 2019 paycheck for employees paid biweekly.

W-2 Tax Forms

The target date for employees electing to receive printed W-2 forms is January 30, 2019.

Title and Total Compensation Update

The results of the recent Benefit’s Survey are now being tabulated by Mercer. UW-Whitewater had a response rate of 45%, so thanks to all of you who participated.

The subject matter experts (SMEs) have been given an extension to February 28th to complete their reviews of the standard job descriptions. Moving forward, four elements have been identified to work through the changes that will come from the study and project. Therefore, within the next month, the Project Team, the Benefits Committee, the JDXpert Review Team, and a few additional members will meet to discuss campus needs related to the project, and will include:

- Change Management
- Communications
- Instructional Academic Staff
- Salary Administration Guidelines

Hello Warhawk Family!

February is a month of celebrations, beginning with Black History Month, Groundhog Day and Valentine’s Day. As a month of celebration, we even get to look forward to Spring! So spring out of your seat and thank a fellow co-worker for what they do on this campus.

The University of Wisconsin – Whitewater has many things to celebrate; however, it is compliments to the employees (past and present) who have created a wonderful legacy, but future employees who will continue the legacy for the Warhawk students.

Thanks to everyone on this campus who makes this a wonderful place to be, and thank you for taking the time to read this newsletter!

Common Benefits Questions & Answers

Q: I haven’t received my insurance card, what do I do?
A: Contact the appropriate insurance company to inquire and/or request new cards. For example, if you have Dean Health Insurance but have not received your card you would contact Dean to inquire. This is true for any of the plans you are enrolled in whether it be health, life, dental, vision, etc.

Q: How can I find the contact information for my health insurance?
A: You can use the interactive map found here: http://etf.wi.gov/members/IYC2019/et-2107hpm.asp. Click on the correct county and links, the appropriate provider will pop-up.

Q: How can I find contact information for the other plans?
A: You can go to the ‘Current Employees’ page in the Benefits tile and select the appropriate benefit category. These links will take you UW System’s website where you can learn more about benefits and locate contact information.

Q: How do I change the amount I am contributing to my 403b or WDC account?
A: You can do this online by logging into your My UW System portal, click ‘Launch full app’ on the Benefit Information tile, navigate to the bottom of the page and click on ‘Update TSA Deductions’. Select the Type of Benefit plan you wish to change, click Edit, make your change and then save.

Q: How can I find out how much is in my WRS Account?
A: You can do this online by logging into your My UW System portal, click ‘Launch full app’ on the Benefit Information tile and click on the ‘Statements’ tab at the top of the page. ETF posts Annual Statements of Benefits in April every year for the previous year. For example, a statement will be posted to your portal in April 2019 reflecting contributions and projections based on contributions through 2018.

Q: How can I update dependent information?
A: You can do this online by logging into your My UW System portal, click ‘Launch full app’ on the Benefit Information tile and click on the ‘Dependents’ tab at the top of the page.

Q: Where can I find my Benefit Enrollment Confirmation Statements?
A: You can do this online by logging into your My UW System portal, click ‘Launch full app’ on the Benefit Information tile and click on the ‘Statements’ tab at the top of the page.

PAYROLL: Notes & Reminders

Upcoming Important Dates
February “B” biweekly payroll has an early deadline. All time and absences must be entered and approved by 4:30 p.m. Friday, February 15.

Approving Time/Absence for Biweekly Employees
A UW-System web page is available with several resources for supervisors regarding the Manager Self Service Dashboard on the My UW System portals. These resources include Tip Sheets on approving time and absences and managing exceptions, and an instructional video. Click on this link: https://uwservice.wisconsin.edu/help/time-absence/#for-managers.

Absence Management Notes
When a Faculty or Academic Staff employee selects the option “No Leave Taken” for their monthly leave report, they are not charged any leave. You may ignore the zeros and eights that appear as the duration. The zeros and eights are merely an indicator of whether the specific date you entered (i.e. 12/01/18) is a weekday (8 hours) or a weekend day (0 hours).

Full-time Faculty and Academic Staff report absences in 4-hour increments (see below). Part-time employees report actual hours of absence, in 15-minute increments.

- 0 hours – less than 2 hours: No absence reported
- 2 hours – less than 6 hours: Report a 4-hour absence
- 6 or more hours: Report an 8-hour absence

Entering Online Absences/Date Ranges
In the past, employees were instructed to enter absence requests for one day at a time. This is still the recommended practice. However, for extended periods of absence, date ranges may be used. It is important that the following parameters for date ranges be followed, so that the correct amount of leave usage is recorded:

1. A date range cannot cross over a weekend, a holiday, or a change in months.
2. Each day in the date range needs to be the same type of leave usage (SL, VN, etc.) and the same number of hours for each day.
3. Please check leave balances first to be sure there is enough available for the date range.

Hello! My name is Ramon Rocha, Sr. I am a graduate of Palmyra-Eagle High School and have been in the Whitewater area since the late 80’s. Raised two handsome boys as a single parent. Currently married, we have two lovely daughters.

I was President of the St. Patrick’s Catholic Church Hispanic Committee for over 10 years and the first Hispanic to serve on the City of Whitewater Police and Fire Commission. In the 1990’s, I supported the City of Whitewater Police Department as a translator until the first Hispanic officer was hired.

Operated a Translator Service out of my home providing immigration, income tax and notary services for 15 years. During this time I also worked full-time as a Call Center Manager and most recently as a Warranty Manager for Nelson’s Bus Service.

Joined the Warhawk Family as a custodian in 2018. Applied, offered and accepted the Human Resources Coordinator position in Human Resources & Diversity. February 4, 2019 was my first day in HR&D.

Maybe life isn’t about avoiding the bruises.
Maybe it’s about collecting the scars to prove we showed up for it.
Title and Total Compensation Project Update

As of January 28, 2019, a total number of standard job descriptions [645] are under review and subject matter experts are in the process of reviewing multiple job descriptions as they relate to their area of expertise. We are hoping to hear from Mercer by the end of February about the Benefits Survey.

The intent of the Title and Total Compensation [TTC] Project is to modernize the University of Wisconsin’s title, pay and benefits programs. The goal is to help each campus attract, retain and develop the best employees possible. It is important to keep the “Guiding Principles” in mind, and they are:

- The project will result in relevant and market-informed titles and pay ranges;
- Employees will not see a reduction in their base pay;
- Guidance for addressing market issues over time;
- Employees are not to lose their jobs because of the TTC;
- Employees will work with their supervisors to update and review their job descriptions;
- Clear and consistent information is shared among stakeholders [employees];
- Employees will be able to see how their jobs and titles compare to positions across institutions and other organizations;
- Employees will be provided guidelines to make informed choices about advancing in their careers;
- Managers will be provided with tools to make informed decisions about pay and promotional opportunities for employees;
- A study and project of this magnitude has NOT been done in 30+ years, and
- The results will have the System sustain a valuable product and grow its outstanding workforce!

As a result of several factors [including weather], the project team meeting will be re-scheduled as soon as feasible for the members. Please watch for the invite.

TASC Request for Documentation

As you start using your FSA/Limited Purpose FSA or HSA you may start to receive emails from TASC requesting documentation to substantiate a transaction. The email will provide you with a link to your online account where you can upload copies of the requested receipts. TASC has suggested to also provide EOBs (Explanation of Benefits) whenever possible to help substantiate the claim. The EOB contains coding information that TASC can use to better expedite the process of substantiating your claim.

If you have questions regarding what to do you can also contact TASC directly at 844-786-3947.

Did you know? JURY DUTY

Employees summoned for jury duty are permitted to be absent from work during standard office hours. Faculty, academic staff, limited, and university staff employees are entitled to leave with pay. UW earnings are not reduced by any pay the employee receives for jury duty service.

University staff employees report normal work hours on their timesheet. Employees with night schedules will report standard work hours (7:45 – 4:30p.m.) on days reporting for jury duty. University staff-temporary employees are entitled to leave without pay.

When required to report for jury duty, employees must follow their usual process to report their absences to their department/supervisor. Employees should obtain a statement from the Clerk of Courts verifying their appearance each time they report for jury duty and submit these statements to their supervisor.

Please contact Payroll with any questions.

~ POLICY UPDATE ~

Spring is a time of change and there are a number of changes pending for the UW System. One is the integration of policies, which began in 2015. The University of Wisconsin System Administration [UWSA] will now begin the process of migrating the University Personnel System Operational Policies [UPS] into the University of Wisconsin System Administrative Policies [SYS] policy set. This entails transferring UPS policies from PDF to webpage format, with the ultimate goal to make policies more accessible and understandable. This of course, will require campuses to update their own policies, by updating links, etc.

Proposed and Pending Pay Plan: 2019-2020

In order to plan ahead for the 2019-2020 biennial budget, especially with a proposed and pending pay plan, it is essential to have a performance evaluation on file for all employees. At this time, for all non-instructional staff, a performance evaluation must be on file. Human resources is asking for performance evaluations to be on file on or before April 30th.

If you have any questions, the University of Wisconsin System UPS Operational Policy: TC-4 should be posted soon, with few updates. Please review the memo for UW-Whitewater.

The Provost’s office will be providing information for all instructional staff.

Summer Prepay Insurance Premium Deductions

Academic (9-month) employees who will be returning to UW employment in the fall of 2019, and/or Academic (9-month) employees terminating following a summer service/summer session appointment, will have Summer prepay insurance premiums deducted from your April 1, May 1 and/or May 31 paychecks, along with your regular monthly insurance premium deductions, to cover the cost of continuing your insurance coverage through the summer (contract break) months. The summer prepay deductions must be taken in the spring since these insurance premiums are not taken during a contract break (summer) and are not deducted from summer service/summer session earnings.

What If My Employment Status Changes?

If your summer or fall 2019 employment status changes after you have had summer prepay deductions, you may receive deduction refunds. If you will terminate employment, and not return in the fall, contact your human resources office to determine your employment termination and your insurance coverage end dates. If you anticipate any other status changes; marriage, birth, adoption, divorce, etc., contact your human resources office immediately regarding the impact to your insurance benefits.

What If I Do Not Have Summer Prepay Insurance Premiums Deducted?

If you do not have summer prepay deductions taken in the spring, and then you have a summer session/summer service appointment, you will be billed directly for payment of additional premiums due to continue your insurance coverage during the summer months. Your payment is due by the billing...

invoice due date to insure your insurance benefits are not canceled. If your benefits are canceled due to nonpayment, your next opportunity to add the insurance benefits may be during the fall 2019 Annual Benefits Enrollment period with an effective insurance coverage date of January 1, 2020.

How Will Summer Prepays Appear on My Earnings Statement?

Please review your earnings statements to ensure that your insurance deductions are accurate for your situation. Summer prepay deductions will appear as a lump sum amount on earnings statements. Deductions taken pre-tax (most medical-related premiums and a portion of State Group Life Insurance premiums) will be added together under ‘Prebtx’ and deductions taken post-tax (most life insurance premiums) will be added together under ‘Preatx.’ Regular benefit deductions for the month will continue to be listed under the plan name.

Talent & Acquisition Highlights

Leaving? Retirement, Resignation, Transfer -- Before You Go:

When you’ve made the decision to separate from UW-Whitewater, please submit your separation letter to your supervisor with a copy to Human Resources & Diversity (HR&D) at benefits@uww.edu. Your letter should specify if you are transferring to another UW System campus or State agency, and your last day in work status (last day on campus) with UW-Whitewater. Timely submission to HR&D ensures appropriate leave and benefits counseling and payroll calculations.

Recruitment Approval Electronic Format:

NEW! HR, in collaboration with campus stakeholders, created an electronic format for receiving authorization to fill vacancies and new positions: “Recruitment Approval Request” application: https://my.uww.edu/recruitmentapproval.

The workflow begins with Human Resources, providing the opportunity to verify position details, AA/EEO, title and salary, etc., and then the request moves forward for additional approvals. Once the “Recruitment Approval Request” is fully authorized, a member of the Talent Acquisition team will enter the recruitment into TAM, which will require the Hiring Manager to review and approve for posting the position. This online process confirms all necessary information in the approval to fill stage, and eliminates the bulk of the initial TAM approval string to post a recruitment. An approval flow chart can be found on the landing page for this application. We are happy to answer any questions you may have about the electronic process; please do not hesitate to contact us!

Summer Service
Departments who are hiring employees for Summer Service work should initiate these via HR Change of Status, http://www.uww.edu/adminaffairs/hr/change-of-status, prior to the start of the work. Summer Service contracts are for those individuals who are hired into 9-month academic year contracts and providing a non-instructional service for campus during the summer break, 5/22/19 to 8/20/19. Please contact your HR Liaison for assistance or questions.

Contact Carrie Lencho, lenchoc@uww.edu, for questions related to Summer Session (instructional summer work) contracts.

PAYROLL: Notes & Reminders

Forms & Security
Please note: Several of the forms required by Human Resources & Diversity ask for an employee's Social Security Number (W-4, insurance applications, etc.). The direct deposit form contains personal banking information. It is recommended that you do NOT send these forms to us as email attachments. The campus email server is not secure and the information is not protected.

Forms containing personal information should either be mailed, dropped off at our front desk, or faxed to: 262-472-5668.

Missing Leave Reports
New "Missing Leave Reports" notification process: Beginning in April, employees with one or more missing leave reports for the current fiscal year (7/1/18 – 6/30/19) will receive an email from the UW Service Center indicating which leave reports are missing. Approvers will receive an email approximately a week later reminding them to approve submitted absence requests. Following the end of the fiscal year, employees with missing reports will have an automatic reduction in their sick leave earnings for the fiscal year. Annual 12-month employees will lose up to 28.0 hours of SL, based on FTE, and will see the SL reduction in their August leave balances. Academic-Year employees will lose up to 44.8 hours of SL, based on FTE, and will see the SL reduction in their September leave balances. If missing reports are submitted by 9/30/19, the sick leave reduction will be reversed.

Tune in next month to find out: what is healthy, has 16 squares, and FREE SOCKS?!!

Immigration News: UW-Whitewater and Beyond

Every newsletter will include updates on UW-Whitewater immigration sponsorship, policies, procedures, etc. In addition, there will be updates on immigration law, changes in USCIS forms, processing, and events in the national news.

UW-Whitewater
- Coming in May: Workshops for Form I-485; they will be ongoing. (This form is used to apply for the final stage of permanent resident status/green card)
- Coming in July: Workshops for EB-1 upgrades (for ‘Outstanding Professors or Researchers’ immigration category) and EB-1 downgrades (if applicable); also ongoing.

USCIS Updates
- On March 8, 2019, USCIS published the revised Form I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status. They will reject any Form I-539 with an edition date of 12/23/16 or earlier that is received by USCIS after close of business on March 21, 2019.

Starting on March 22, 2019, they will only accept the revised Form I-539 with an edition date of 02/04/19. They also published a new Form I-539A, Supplemental Information for Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status, on March 8 (replacing ‘Supplement A’ of Form I-539).

Read more here: UPDATE: USCIS to Publish Revised Form I-539 and New Form I-539A on March 8.
In closing, below are inspiring quotations from naturalization ceremonies.

Putting politics aside…

At 11:05 a.m. on Friday the 13th of January, an Iranian woman was the first to check in for New York’s last naturalization ceremony during Barack Obama’s presidency. She approached the kiosk alone — her husband was too ill to accompany her — and, when she handed over her green card, began to cry. Her journey had begun way back in 1996, she later explained, when she left Iran with her husband, two children, and $15,000 in her bank account. Her tears set the tone for what many staff on duty that day described as one of the more emotionally loaded citizenship ceremonies they have experienced at 26 Federal Plaza. http://nymag.com/intelligencer/2017/01/these-are-some-of-the-last-americans-naturalized-under-obama.html

“You paid America the high tribute of aspiring to live here, leaving behind familiar ways and places and accepting a process that everyone knows is not easy,” George Bush said. “Our country in return honored your efforts and soon will be honored to call you a citizen.”

I was 6 years old when the war happened in Cyprus. I lived with my grandmother in the village. I survived bombings; when bullets came flying through our windows I hid with my 3-year-old brother under a table. We had to flee our village on a tractor as my grandfather did not own a car. He went back to the house that same night to feed the farm animals and was captured as a prisoner of war ... The best and most solemn part for me was when I took the oath of allegiance. It was as if, during that precise moment, I made the transition to being a U.S. citizen. It was like I crossed over. http://nymag.com/intelligencer/2017/01/these-are-some-of-the-last-americans-naturalized-under-obama.html

USCIS Updates (con’t)

- USCIS has launched an H-1B Employer Data Hub to provide information to the public on employers petitioning for H-1B workers. The data hub is part of our continued effort to increase transparency in employment-based visa programs by allowing the public to search for H-1B petitioners by fiscal year (back to FY 2009), NAICS code, employer name, city, state, or ZIP code. This will give the public the ability to calculate approval and denial rates and to review which employers are using the H-1B program. Data for individual fiscal years is available to download on the H-1B Employer Data Hub Files page

Civics Test Answer Updates

Are you preparing for the naturalization test? As you study for the U.S. history and government (civics) test, make sure that you know the most current answers to these questions.
Title and Total Compensation Project Update

The TTC Project aims to modernize the UW System’s title, pay, and benefits programs. Its goal is to develop new systems that will help UW institutions attract and retain the best people.

The result of this project will be:

- Concise, consistent and relevant job titles and descriptions
- Market-informed pay and benefits structures
- A framework for career development

What’s New

UW System job titles and descriptions are being modernized. The goal is to have all UW System titles and job descriptions represent the work commonly done across the system. A new standardized job description format will be implemented that is concise, consistent, and aligns with the Job Framework. While this standardized job description format is simpler, it does not change daily tasks as currently assigned. Many titles used today will not change. New titles are being created for instances where (1) current job titles do not accurately describe the work being performed or (2) current titles do not match those in the market for comparable work.

Training is being developed for Fall 2019 to engage human resources staff, managers, and employees in conversations about the transition to the new, modernized and market-informed Job Framework. As a result of this transition, all UW System positions will be mapped to a Job Family, Job Sub-Family, and Standard Job Title and Job Description.

Thoughts & Questions

We value your feedback. Tell us what's helpful, what's not, and what you'd like to see in future editions of the TTC update. For comments and concerns, please email TTC@uwsa.edu.

Hello Warhawk Family!

The end of an academic year, which also means preparations for the next academic year, are well underway. This summer, professional development is high on the list for the next academic year, beginning with a new and enhanced employee orientation. The new orientation will involve many participants from all over campus – thank you so much for helping with the new roll-out. Also, watch for all of the happenings that will be part of The Welcome “Back” Week! It is developing into a wonderful collaborative jump into the new academic year, so please watch for details!

Happy Summer Everyone!

FEI Follow-Up
Thank you to all who attended the FEI kick-off last month. During the kick-off there were a few questions asked that I promised to look into and provide answers. So here we go:

Q: What does ‘FEI’ stand for?
A: ‘FEI’ no longer stands for anything, technically; however, FEI formerly stood for “Families Enterprise International” when we were a program under Family Service America, which was our parent organization’s previous name (the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities).

https://www.feinet.com/about/history/

Q: Can student employees use FEI/EAP?
A: Because graduate students and student employees typically have access to other resources for counseling, they are not typically deemed eligible for EAP services. However, this is something we are going to explore further so stay tuned – more to come!

Q: How can providers in the area contract to become an FEI provider?
A: We are continually looking to expand our network of affiliates in the areas we serve. Our Network Operations team both recruits providers and responds to inquiries from those looking to join. If you know of providers in the area who might be interested, please feel free to direct them our way:

Uly works with me in Benefits and has been in our office for approximately six months. During that time, he has helped translate during Benefit Orientations and meetings in addition to providing support with multiple projects. He will be working on organizing and executing many of the benefit events on campus including the Benefits Fair on October 9, 2019. You may have had the pleasure of speaking with Uly when you call our office or encountered his smiling face and cheerful disposition when you stopped by.

Note: These USCIS forms were recently updated.

Excerpt from American Immigration Lawyer’s Association on Case Processing Times

Five years ago, an average case was taking about five months to process. By Fiscal Year (FY) 2018, that same applicant waited nearly 10 months. Those extra months of waiting halt business operations, keep families separated, and jeopardize people’s lives.

Who Is Affected?

People applying for family-based benefits, employment-based benefits, naturalization, travel documents, and employment authorization are all experiencing delays. In FY2018, a staggering 94 percent of all immigration petitions and application form types took longer to process when compared to FY2014.

Why Are Cases Taking Longer?

Many factors can slow down your case. New policies at USCIS are restricting legal immigration. For example, one policy requires USCIS officers to conduct duplicate reviews of past decisions.

John Muir

the conservationist, considered to be the father of the United States National Park System was born in the small, northern coastal town of Dunbar, Scotland on April 21, 1838. He and his family lived in Dunbar until 1849, when his father decided to seek religious freedom and a better life for his family in North America. The family sailed from Scotland to the east coast of the United States, and then traveled by land to Wisconsin, where they settled on a farm near Portage. Although he began school at the age of three, his formal schooling, and with it his study of English, French, and Latin, ended when the family moved to the United States. In Wisconsin, John and his siblings had little time for anything but working hard on the family farm. However, John often woke at one a.m., before his morning chores, in order to read books and build inventions. In 1860, John left the farm for Madison, Wisconsin, where he attended the Wisconsin State University (now the University of Wisconsin-Madison) for the next three years.

PAYROLL: Notes & Reminders

Legal Holidays

There are nine paid legal holidays for State of Wisconsin employees and the number of hours are earned based on FTE. When a legal holiday falls within a pay period, the holiday is automatically loaded to the leave record for salaried Academic Staff employees; they are not submitted as requests by the employee.

For biweekly University Staff, the legal holidays are automatically loaded for full-time employees only.

University Staff employees who are less than full-time must submit legal holiday hours used as absence requests.

Managing Exceptions and Approving Biweekly Timesheets and Absence Requests

It is important for supervisors to manage Exceptions on timesheets during each biweekly pay period. Depending upon the severity of the ‘Exception’, the hours worked by the employee may not load to payroll. Possible ‘Exceptions’ include: missing an IN or an OUT time for a work shift, or times entered for a work day totaling more than 12 hours, etc. These types of ‘Exceptions’ will prevent the hours from loading and the employee won't be paid. Once the ‘Exception’ is corrected, the hours will be picked up during the Time Administration process and will then be available to approve in Payable Time. All payable time and absence requests should be approved by the supervisor by Tuesday following the end of a pay period. The payroll schedule may be found here: https://uwservice.wisconsin.edu/docs/publications/pay-uncl-bw-calendars-2019.pdf.

A dream doesn't become reality through magic; it takes sweat, determination and hard work.

~ Colin Powell

Managing Exceptions (con’t)

Absence requests should be approved by the supervisor in a timely manner. Biweekly employees must have their absences approved prior to the calc or their timesheet will not be complete and their pay will not be correct. Academic Staff absences must be approved in order for accurate balances to display so the employee does not take time off for which there is not corresponding leave time available. Overused leave results in leave-without-pay when the payroll is processed.

There is help for employees and managers on the "Time and Absence Help" page of the Service Center website. There are separate tabs for employees and managers. Information includes Tip Sheets and several short videos regarding timesheets and changes, requesting and approving absence requests, viewing leave balances, and more. https://uwservice.wisconsin.edu/help/time-absence/.

Meet HR&D’s New Development Coordinator

Hello!

My name is Gina Elmore and I have been fortunate enough to join your Warhawk family! I recently moved to Wisconsin from Chicago and look forward to the farmers markets and hiking trails this summer. I welcome restaurant and hiking trail recommendations!

I have worked with various companies as an HR Business Partner, Executive Assistant, Office Manager, and even had my own small business consultant company. As your HR Development Coordinator, I look to use my various experience to bring impactful trainings and development programs. I look forward to hearing from you and your peers to ensure my contributions will have a positive impact for all.

I have a tendency to be inquisitive, I find that everyone has interesting stories and love to hear them. But if you are a bit quieter and would prefer to listen, I can talk a lot about 90’s TV, 90’s music, live theater, traveling around the world, or how much rent is in Chicago.

If you see me walking around, please feel free to say Hi!

Meet HR&D’s New Title IX Coordinator

My name is Vicki Schreiber, Ph.D., and I am the new Title IX Coordinator. In this role I hope to meet with many faculty and staff across campus, as well as students in all areas to help keep UW-W a safe campus. I am coming to you from Alverno College, a small, private, women’s college on the south side of Milwaukee. There I served most recently as the Associate Dean of Students and worked directly with student conduct, residence life, student activities, new student and family programs, and a myriad of other areas for the past 12 years. Prior to Alverno, I worked at Texas A&M International University, Southeast Missouri State University, University of Memphis, and the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. My work at those institutions was mostly in Housing and Student Affairs.

Outside of work, I enjoy doing crafts, specifically making greeting cards and book folding. If you are interested in learning more about it or me, let’s connect!
Timely Reporting

There are specific guidelines when to pay employees. Based on wage payment and collection laws for the State of Wisconsin, it is important to pay employees timely. According to the Equal Rights Publication, ERD-8784-PWEB, “Chapter 109, Wis. Stats, requires employer to pay workers all wages earned at least monthly, with no longer than 31 days between pay periods.” It is the law; however, another compelling reason is the additional work the Service Center and the Wisconsin Retirement System must go through to address and maintain accurate payroll records for reporting purposes. All campuses receive a monthly notice for hires, terminations and payments entered beyond the 30-day window. Every campus has been asked to be cognizant of the 30-day window and to get everything entered in a timely manner...thank you for helping the human resources and diversity department address this charge.

The warm weather is finally here! This is the time of year when many people get to reconnect with family and friends; however, this is a busy time of year when there are many deadlines for the Human Resources and Diversity Department. The following highlights just a few of the time-sensitive challenges facing HR this time of year...fiscal year end; summer programs; camps; clinics; immigration processing; onboarding new employees; ‘Welcome Back’ week; student employee payroll, in addition to the continuous audits, HRS/SFS cloud assessment, and responding to the day-to-day needs of the campus community. Members of the Human Resources and Diversity Department plan to be strategic with time off as well – it is the hope that everyone enjoys a wonderful summer.

Hello Warhawk Family!

The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater is in the “heat” of the summer. Many have the impression that campuses are quiet on the home front; however, that couldn’t be further from the truth. The Human Resources and Diversity Department is preparing for the new academic year, onboarding new employees and addressing new training opportunities, while other areas are working with camps and clinics, yet others are traveling abroad, hiking in the mountains and hiking.

This is a very busy time of year with many employees out of the office spending time with family. Therefore, this is a time of year when patience is a true virtue.

Enjoy the rest of the summer – we look forward to seeing everyone in August, welcoming a more routine schedule.

Regards,

PAYROLL: Notes & Reminders

INTRODUCING ...MOLLY PARRISH

Hello! My name is Molly Parrish and I am very excited to join the UW Whitewater Payroll Team as a Payroll and Benefits Specialist Advanced.

In my previous roles in HR, I was a Human Resource Manager and most recently I worked for the City of Whitewater as the HR Coordinator. I have worked in all aspects of HR but really enjoy payroll and benefits administration. I am looking forward to my new role with the University and applying my former experience and knowledge.

I relocated with my family from Tomah, Wisconsin in 2011 when my husband accepted a position with First Citizens State Bank. I love this community and feel fortunate to have been able to raise my children here. I am the proud parent of two children who have graduated from Whitewater High School. My daughter will be a Carroll University Pioneer in the fall and my son will be entering his second year as a UW-W Warhawk!

SUBMIT 2018-19 FISCAL YEAR LEAVE REPORTS:

Faculty, Academic Staff and Limited appointees who have an active leave-eligible appointment are required to submit a leave report each month, whether or not leave is used.

The 2018-19 fiscal year ended on June 30th.

Please be sure all leave reports for July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019 have been submitted and approved, so that you do not have a reduction in your sick leave earnings due to missing leave reports.

EXCITING NEW SUMMER LEAVE REPORTING PROCESS FOR 9-MONTH EMPLOYEES:

There is a new tab available for entering Summer sick leave takes, or verifying ‘No Leave Taken’. This process replaces the paper Summer Leave Reports previously used for academic-year employees with Summer contracts. Annual 12-month employees continue to submit regular monthly leave reports as usual.

To access the new leave reporting process, log into the My UW System portal. Launch the Time and Absence app and click on the new tab: ‘Summer Appointment Leave Reporting’. To submit "No Leave Taken," just click on the green Submit button. If you have absences to report for the Summer, indicate the date(s) and number of hours and then click the green Submit button.

Many people have heard of the Title IX Education Amendments of 1972 as a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in employment and any federally-funded programs or activities. This section will highlight different aspects of Title IX that are important for the University community to know.

Recognize...all employees are known as “Responsible Employees.” According to Title IX, a “responsible employee” is an employee who a student or other employee can reasonably believe has the authority to take action to remedy incidents of sexual misconduct. The exceptions to this are confidential reporters (counselors, medical staff, etc.) as outlined in campus policy.

Respond...to a student or employee who discloses to you that they may have been involved in a situation of inappropriate conduct of a sexual nature that violates another person’s personal boundary. Your response can include things like active listening and providing information about campus resources including but not limited to, the Dean of Students Office staff, Campus Police, Health & Counseling staff, and the Title IX Coordinator.

Report...all concerns to the Title IX Coordinator by calling 262-472-2143, or by emailing titleix@uww.edu.

Information on the naturalization process from uscis.gov:

WASHINGTON — Last week U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) celebrated the Declaration of Independence and the birth of our country by welcoming almost 7,500 new citizens in nearly 110 naturalization ceremonies between July 1 and July 5. Our naturalization ceremonies were held in venues across the country, and include several notable ceremonies...

On July 4, we celebrated the day the Second Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of Independence in 1776, declaring that the 13 American colonies regarded themselves as a new nation – the United States of America – and were no longer part of the British Empire. Each year, USCIS marks Independence Day with naturalization ceremonies...

USCIS is committed to promoting awareness and understanding of citizenship by offering a variety of free citizenship preparation resources for applicants and teachers, including materials like the Establishing Independence lesson plan in the Citizenship Resource Center. Immigrant-serving organizations can register to receive a free Civics and Citizenship Toolkit to help lawful permanent residents prepare for naturalization.

June Millicent Jordan, poet and social activist (1936-2002), is one of the most widely-published and highly-acclaimed African American writers of her generation. Poet, playwright and essayist, June Jordan was known for her fierce commitment to human rights and political activism. Over a career that produced twenty-seven volumes of poems, essays, libretti, and work for children, Jordan engaged the fundamental struggles of her era: for civil rights, women's rights, and sexual freedom. A prolific writer across genres, Jordan’s poetry is known for its immediacy and accessibility as well as its interest in identity and the representation of personal, lived experience - her poetry is often deeply autobiographical.

The author of more than twenty-five major works of poetry, fiction and essays, as well as numerous children's books. Jordan wrote the librettos for the operas Bang Bang Uber Alles with music by Adrienne Torf, and I Was Looking at the Ceiling and Then I Saw the Sky, with music by John Adams; she wrote lyrics frequently for other musicians, as well as plays and musicals.

Regarded as one of the key figures in the mid-century African American social, political and artistic milieu, Jordan also taught at many of the country's most prestigious universities including Yale, State University of New York-Stony Brook, and the University of California-Berkley, where she founded Poetry for the People. Her honors and awards included fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Massachusetts Council on the Arts, and the New York Foundation for the Arts, a Rockefeller Foundation grant, and the National Association of Black Journalists Award.

Letter to the Local Police
By June Jordan

Dear Sirs:

I have been enjoying the law and order of our community throughout the past three months since my wife and I, our two cats, and miscellaneous photographs of the six grandchildren belonging to our previous neighbors (with whom we were very close) arrived in Saratoga Springs which is clearly prospering under your custody.

Indeed, until yesterday afternoon and despite my vigilant casting about, I have been unable to discover a single instance of reasons for public-spirited concern, much less complaint.

You may easily appreciate, then, how it is that I write to your office, at this date, with utmost regret for the lamentable circumstances that force my hand.

Speaking directly to the issue of the moment:

I have encountered a regular profusion of certain unidentified roses, growing to no discernible purpose, and according to no perceptible control, approximately one quarter mile west of the Northway, on the southern side.

To be specific, there are practically thousands of the aforementioned abiding in perpetual near riot of wild behavior, indiscriminate coloring, and only the Good Lord Himself can say what diverse soliciting of promiscuous cross-fertilization.

As I say, these roses, no matter what the apparent background, training, tropistic tendencies, age, or color, do not demonstrate the least inclination toward categorization, specified allegiance, resolute preference, consideration of the needs of others, or any other minimal traits of decency.

May I point out that I did not assiduously seek out this colony, as it were, and that these certain unidentified roses remain open to viewing even by children, with or without suitable supervision.

(My wife asks me to append a note as regards the seasonal but nevertheless seriously licentious phenomenon of honeysuckle under the moon that one may apprehend at the corner of Nelson and Main

Letter to the Local Police (con’t)

However, I have recommended that she undertake direct correspondence with you, as regards this: yet another civic disturbance in our midst.

I am confident that you will devise and pursue appropriate legal response to the roses in question. If I may aid your efforts in this respect, please do not hesitate to call me into consultation.

Respectfully yours,

~ Fini ~

UPS/SYS Integration:
July 2019 Update

The University Personnel Systems (UPS) policies have been successfully integrated into the UW System Administrative (SYS) policy framework as the SYS 1200 series. This process resulted in no substantive changes to the policies, and they continue to apply to all UW institutions, other than UW-Madison. Future changes to the UPS policies will go through the regular SYS policy review process. Here is the link to the Chief Human Resources Officers UPS update: (link)

Community Engagement Center Update

If you walked into the UW-Whitewater Community Engagement Center (the old Sentry Building), you might notice a few things. There is a lot of potential in unused space, there are 22,000 sq. ft. of event space and classrooms, there is a gallery, departmental space, a co-working atrium, and an Occupational Health and Safety lab. However, there is a lot more that goes into a building than choosing spaces, flooring, and wall color. We are also working with how the building feels and how you find your way through.

One of those ideas is to accent the size of the building and mirror a small town indoors. This may include using signage that looks like street signs. In the Safety hall in Administrative Affairs, we put an example on the wall to see how people might respond to it. When the building opens, we hope that you take a walk through, spend some time, go to a few events and help energize the building so that we can help fulfill some of the needs of the community and continue to build on great examples where the University and Community meet to build on the Wisconsin Idea.

Warhawks Do the Right Thing!

UW Whitewater’s Audit, Risk, Compliance and Ethics Committee (ARCE), comprised of subject matter experts from across the Whitewater campus, have put in place a list of six, user-friendly principles that express our campus commitment to positive interpersonal communication: treat everyone with respect and appreciation regardless of our differences. These principles reinforce our campus’ commitment to a positive environment, supports our Strategic Plan, UW System Policy Workplace Conduct Expectations, and the Wisconsin Administrative Code addressing Conduct on University Lands. Over the next 6 months we will explore one of these principles.

Principle 1: On a user-friendly campus, members of the community understand and act in accordance with the human desire for positive interactions with others. Typical interpersonal behaviors in such an environment reflect and support the following values, applicable without regard to differences in respect to rank, class, age, race, gender, disability, ethnicity, or sexual orientation: respect, courtesy/civility, appreciation, empathy, trust, inclusion, and consultation.

It has been shown that positive social interactions at work are associated with immediate and enduring effects on the cardiovascular, immune and neuroendocrine systems and can build physiological resourcefulness and physical health (Heaphy, 2008).

Nygaele McGeathey from Pearce Center for Professional Communication, Clemson gives us:

4 Tips to Encourage Positive Team Interactions in the Workplace

1. RECEIVE AND PROVIDE FEEDBACK
   Don’t take it personally! Your coworkers are working toward the same overarching goal, so if you are approached with constructive criticism to better yourself or your work, take it as a gift and opportunity to grow. Contribute to fostering an environment that promotes the thoughtful exchange of ideas.

2. BE TRANSPARENT
   Be open! If your team members feel you withhold information, they might begin to feel a sense of distrust, and that distrust could cause them to be less transparent. When there is not an open line of communication, assumptions are made and mishaps occur that deter the team from their goals.

3. TAKE A BREATHER
   Avoid burnout! No one wants to have a breakdown at their workplace. Try small changes such as waking up early enough to eat a balanced breakfast, keeping a stress ball at the desk, and going on lunch break without bringing work along. If these steps aren’t enough and you’re feeling overwhelmed, reach out to team members or your higher up to strategize or redistribute some work. Your coworkers might be happy to help, and your higher up could possibly reorganize your workload. It never hurts to ask!

4. PRACTICE EMPATHY
   Be a listener! You aren’t the only one who experiences emotions and circumstances that affect daily operations. Not all coworkers are comfortable divulging personal information in a personal setting, but if you notice something is off and they could use some help, you can be a supportive team member by offering help with work responsibilities or simply displaying more care in your actions. They’ll trust you more, and they reciprocate these efforts in the future.

These are just a few things to practice when working in a collaborative work setting. Take care of yourself and your coworkers, be open to criticism, and keep the lines of communication open!

All Things Immigration: USCIS Updates

New Final Rule Regarding Public Charge from uscis.gov:

New Final Rule regarding Public Charge and Immigration Benefits: (here).

The rule makes nonimmigrant aliens who have received certain public benefits above a specific threshold generally ineligible for extension of stay and change of status. “Public benefit” will include any cash benefits for income maintenance, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP), most forms of Medicaid, and certain housing programs.

An opponent of the rule, Greenlining Institute’s Health Equity Policy Fellow and writer Asia Alman, stated that, “As a daughter of Afro-Caribbean immigrants and an advocate for communities of color, this issue is deeply personal. My story would not be possible had this proposal been in effect when my mother immigrated to Brooklyn, New York from The Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. My mother and her younger sister migrated to Brooklyn with two education visas and little money. Public benefits like Medicaid helped my mother receive necessary medical care while juggling a challenging graduate program in social work.”

Bayard Rustin (1912-1987)

In 1941, a man named Bayard Rustin was already working behind the scenes shaping the Civil Rights Movement; he was one of the initial architects of the movement. Rustin was the person responsible for convincing Martin Luther King to adopt non-violent resistance methods to address racial injustice during the bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama. A deeply religious man, Rustin developed his non-violent ideas from the teaching of Jesus, the political theory of Henry David Thoreau, and Gandhi. In 1963, Rustin organized a huge network of civil rights activists for the March on Washington remembered of course for Dr. King’s inspiring speech, “I Have a Dream”. Bayard Rustin’s biography can be found (here).

INVEST FOR COLLEGE WITH ‘EdVest’

Saving for post-high school education may seem daunting, but with Edvest, Wisconsin’s 529 College Savings Plan, you can start making small contributions today for the future. Anyone – parents, grandparents, extended family members and friends – can set up an account for anyone else. An account can also be used to save for one’s own continuing education.

Edvest makes saving easy by offering low fees, a low minimum contribution of $15 per pay period, and tax deductions for Wisconsin residents (limitations apply). Distributions from Edvest funds are exempt from federal income tax when used for qualified expenses. You may have contributions to Edvest allocated from your paycheck as a direct deposit. Payroll deduction is not available.

Any individual can use these funds at universities, colleges, professional schools, technical colleges, and graduate programs across the country and even at some institutions abroad. Funds can cover tuition, books, room and board, computers, tablets, and many other expenses. For more information and to open an account, visit the Edvest website.

TAX REFORM INFORMATION

The Treasury Department and the IRS are working to incorporate changes into the Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, for 2020. For the current 2019 tax year, the IRS continues to strongly urge taxpayers to review their tax withholding situation, as soon as possible, to avoid having too little or too much withheld from their paychecks. To perform a quick "paycheck check-up", use this IRS withholding calculator.

SPEAKING OF TAXES, DID YOU KNOW:

The $150 Well Wisconsin Incentive is a fringe benefit; therefore, it is considered taxable income.

The Department of Employee Trust Funds (ETF) sends reports to UW System twice a year indicating the employees who have received the incentive. Payrolls to include the Incentive amount to be taxed will be:

- Biweekly: August 29th, or December 5th
- Monthly: August 30th, or November 29th

Please direct questions to StayWell at [email link], or the health plan carriers (some offer incentive programs in addition to the $150 Well Wisconsin Incentive).

Reports will identify the incentive source: StayWell, or the health plan carrier.

See page 10 for $150 Well Wisconsin Incentive eligibility detail.
PAYROLL: Notes & Reminders (con’t)

WRS CONTRIBUTION RATES TO INCREASE IN 2020

The Department of Employee Trust Funds (ETF) recently announced that the Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS) employee and employer contribution rates will increase slightly effective January 1, 2020. WRS rates are evaluated and adjusted annually. The slight increase is due to lower than expected Core Trust Fund investment performance and economic assumption changes that were approved by the ETF Board in December, 2018.

Contribution increase and decrease fluctuations are considered normal for retirement systems like the WRS that pre-fund retirement benefits. For example, WRS contribution rates in 2019 were lowered due to favorable investment performance.

UW System employee contribution rates are determined by employment category. Most UW employees are in the General/Teacher/Executive category. Employees with law enforcement or public protection duties (police officers, fire fighters) are in the Protective category.

The 2020 contribution rates will apply to all paychecks paid in 2020; beginning with the January 2, 2020 paycheck for Faculty, Academic Staff and Limited Appointees paid monthly, and the January 2, 2020 paycheck for University staff paid bi-weekly. As a reminder, WRS contributions are taken on a pre-tax basis for state and federal tax purposes. For more information, visit the WRS webpage on the UW System Employee Benefits website.

The 3 R’s of Title IX: Recognize, Respond & Report

Many people have heard of the Title IX Education Amendments of 1972 as a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in employment and any federally-funded programs or activities. This section will highlight different aspects of Title IX that are important for the University community to know.

Recognize... all UW Whitewater employees and students must take an online training module that focuses on sexual harassment and sexual misconduct. New employees must complete the training within 30 days of hire. Returning employees must then retake the training every 3 years.

Respond... as a Responsible Employee to all complaints of discrimination based on sex or gender.

Report... all concerns to the Title IX Coordinator by calling 262-472-2143, or by emailing titleix@uww.edu.

TITLE AND TOTAL COMPENSATION PROJECT:
August 2019 Update

This project began in 2017, intended to review the job titles and compensation structure for the entire UW System. This project aligns under a broader initiative, known by many as the Commitment to Operational Reform and Excellent [CORE]. The project charge from inception is to develop simplicity, consistency and coherence in human resources policies and procedures. A study project of this magnitude has not been conducted for more than 30 years and is focused on modernizing the titles across the UW System and provide the ability to conduct benefits analysis with other organizations/institutions who are in similar type jobs.

To date, the project has worked with more than 500+ Subject Matter Experts from across the UW System, who have reviewed job titles, developed and reviewed Standard Job Descriptions [[SJD’s]. This part of the project has taken more than six months, and to some, has caused minimal dialogue, but rest assured, work has been continuing behind the scenes. The next steps for the Human Resources departments across the system, is to work with employees to review job titles and standard job descriptions and determine appropriate matches for both [i.e. job mapping]. Job mapping will be the focus for fall of 2019. In the winter of 2019-2010, the draft job titles and standard job descriptions will be posted online and there will be a period of employee-manager conversations to review updated job titles and job descriptions. During the identified time [TBD] employee-manager conversations will take place whereby employees can confirm that the new standard job descriptions capture the work they do.

As a project reminder, contrary to some informal discussions:

- Employees will not lose their jobs because of the TTC project
- Employees will not have to re-apply for their jobs
- The work will not change as a result of the study
- Pay [salaries] will not be cut
- Salary increases are outside of the scope of the project
- Job titles and job descriptions may change

This project creates the foundation for market-informed UW compensation structure reviews for leadership to identify compensation issues and advocate for employees, but does not address compensation issues. Likewise, changes to current benefits offerings are out of scope of this project and subject to the Board of Regents and legislature reviews and approvals [July, 2019].

WHICH HEALTH INSURANCE PLAN IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

During the Annual Benefits Enrollment (ABE) period (September 30 - October 25, 2019), you will have an opportunity to select your health insurance plan for coverage effective January 1, 2020. It is important to select the plan design and health insurance carrier that best fits the needs of you and your family. To help you prepare for ABE, this article highlights what is the same and what is different between High-Deductible Health Plans and Non-HDHP health plans.

What is the same for the HDHP and the Non-HDHP Health Plans?

- In-network preventive services are covered at 100%.
- Coverage for federally required preventive drugs at 100%.
- Both have a deductible (this is the amount you pay before the plan pays).
- In-network coinsurance is 10% (this is the amount you pay for specific services; the plan pays the remaining 90%).
- In-network providers will provide lower out-of-pocket expenses than out-of-network providers.
- Both allow participation in the Well Wisconsin program to earn $150 wellness incentive.
- Both provide an opportunity to enroll in Uniform Dental Benefits.
- Both offer out-of-network coverage through the Access HDHP and Access Non-HDHP Health Plans. Due to out-of-network coverage, Access plans are more expensive.

What is different between the HDHP and the Non-HDHP Health Plans?

- HDHPs have lower premiums (the amount deducted from your paycheck).
  - Premiums are required regardless of whether you use your health insurance.
- HDHPs include a Health Savings Account (HSA) to help you prepare for out-of-pocket expenses. An HSA provides three separate tax benefits:
  - Contributions are tax-deductible.
  - HSA assets grow tax-free (through interest or investing).
  - Withdrawals for qualified medical, dental and/or vision expenses are not taxed.
- HDHPs include an employer contribution to the HSA (up to $750 for single coverage, $1,500 for family) which remains in your HSA until you use it.

- Non-HDHP Health Plans have a deductible for medical services and a separate deductible for pharmacy benefits; HDHPs have a deductible that includes medical services and pharmacy benefits.
- Non-HDHP Health Plans have lower deductibles and out-of-pocket limits (the most you pay per calendar year for covered services; includes copayments, deductible and coinsurance).
  - You only pay out-of-pocket costs when you use your health insurance.
Which Health Insurance Plan is Right For You? (con’t)

How prepared are you and your family for expected/unexpected out-of-pocket expenses?

Review the expenses you have incurred so far in 2019 for health, dental and vision services to help you prepare for 2020. Some of the ways you can save for expected and/or unexpected health, dental and vision out-of-pocket expenses include:

- With a HDHP you may use the HSA (medical, dental and/or vision expenses) or Limited Purpose FSA (dental, vision and post-medical deductible expenses) to set aside pre-tax earnings to help pay for qualifying out-of-pocket expenses.

- With a Non-HDHP Health Plan you may set aside earnings in a Health Care Flexible Spending Account (pre-tax) for out-of-pocket expenses.

ALL THINGS IMMIGRATION: Policies & Processes

USCIS Updates
On August 7, 2019 U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) –the branch of the Department of Homeland Security which generally handles immigrant benefits—supposedly stopped accepting and adjudicating requests for non-military “deferred action,” a form of temporary relief from deportation for vulnerable immigrants often facing life-threatening circumstances. However, an official from ICE, the Department of Homeland Security’s enforcement branch that typically deals with the removal of unauthorized immigrants, claimed that USCIS had not coordinated with ICE on this issue. Currently it appears that the administration has reversed its decision to deport families currently here on medical deferred action but the administration hasn’t provided information as to whether it will accept new medical deferred action cases.

Famous Immigrants Who Have Enriched Our US Culture

The Mirabal Sisters
(Patria, Dedé, Minerva and Maria Teresa)

Also known as Las Mariposas (The Butterflies), were four political dissidents in the Dominican Republic opposed to the authoritarian rule of Rafael Trujillo. The name “Butterflies” derived from their dedication to freedom. Even when their husbands were imprisoned, they continued to be part of the Dominican resistance movement. On November 25, 1960, the sisters were returning from a visit to their husbands, when three of them were choked to death, the only survivor being, Dede. The driver of their car was also murdered, and the government blamed their deaths on an auto accident. After the tragedy, there was heightened awareness of the corrupt regime and people began to defy repression. About six months following the murders, Trujillo himself was ambushed and killed. The spirit of Las Mariposas remains alive in films and novels. The surviving Mirabal sister, Dedé, was instrumental in creating a museum in honor of her sisters and continuing to advocate for the rights of Dominican women.

PAYROLL SCHEDULES
The 2019 Payroll Schedule for all employees is available at the following link: https://uwservice.wisconsin.edu/docs/publications/pay-uncl-bw-calendars-2019.pdf.

Faculty and Academic Staff are paid monthly; the first of each month. When the first is on a weekend or holiday, employees are paid on the last business day prior to the first of the month. Nine-month academic-year staff are paid October 1st through June 1st.

OVERLOAD PAYMENTS / CHANGE OF STATUS FORMS (COS)
Overloads are generally paid in two installments. Fall overloads may be paid on November 1, 2019 and February 1, 2020. Per the Overload Policy Principles, COS forms received in Human Resources by the 8th of the month will be guaranteed payment on that month’s overload payroll schedule. COS forms received late may not be processed until the following month, or until the next scheduled payroll for overload payments. Please see the “Overload Policy Principles” document on the Human Resources web site: http://www.uww.edu/adminaffairs/hr/hr-overload.

ACA CALENDAR
The ACA Calendar for the 2019-2020 Calendar Years is now available. This calendar is for Student Employees so that they remain in compliance with the Affordable Care Act hours regulations. Click (here) to reach the Human Resources/Forms web page link. It is also posted in the ‘Supervisor Toolbox’ on the Student Employment website.

ABSENCE MANAGEMENT INFORMATION
Faculty and Academic Staff earning leave must submit a monthly leave report, even if no leave is used. When selecting the option “No Leave Taken,” no leave is charged. Full-time employees report absences in 4-hour increments (see below). Part-time employees report actual hours of absence, in 15-minute increments.

0 hours – less than 2 hours: No absence reported
2 hours – less than 6 hours: Report a 4-hour absence
6 or more hours: Report an 8-hour absence

LEGAL HOLIDAYS
There are nine paid legal holidays for State of Wisconsin employees and the number of hours earned are based on FTE. Holidays are automatically loaded to the leave record for salaried Academic Staff; they are not submitted as absence requests by the employee. If an annual Academic Staff member works on a legal holiday (i.e. Labor Day), they should notify Payroll so that their auto-loaded LH hours may be voided and used at another time. For biweekly University Staff, the legal holidays are automatically loaded for full-time employees only. University Staff who are less than full-time must submit legal holiday hours used as absence requests.

UW-Whitewater Human Resources will be identifying and meeting with subject matter experts to complete the mapping process by the projected deadline of October 31, 2019. The new job titles and job descriptions will be posted online during the Employee-Manager Meetings which are projected to be held between December 1, 2019 and February 15, 2020. Many people have heard of the Title IX Education Amendments of 1972 as a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in employment and any federally-funded programs or activities. This section will highlight different aspects of Title IX that are important for the University community to know.

Recognize... Sexual violence is difficult to measure and there is no single source of data that provides a complete picture of the crimes associated with sexual misconduct. The following information is obtained from RAINN’s (Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network) website.*

- 54% of sexual assault victims are age 18-34
- 9 out of 10 victims of rape are female
- Male college-aged students (18-24) are 78% more likely than non-students to be a victim of rape or sexual assault
- 55% of sexual assaults occur at or near the victim's home
- College-age victims of sexual violence often do not report to law enforcement. Reasons for not reporting include:
  * 10% did not want the perpetrator to get in trouble
  * 12% believed it was not important enough to report
  * 20% had a fear of reprisal
  * 26% believed it was a personal matter
- More than 50% of college sexual assaults occur in either August, September, October, or November.
- 8 out of 10 rapes are committed by someone known to the victim

RAINN’s information is from the National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS), which is an annual study conducted by the Justice Department. For more information about this survey, you can go to the following website: (here)

Catastrophic Leave Program (Policy Update)

On August 12, President Cross approved revisions to SYS 1214, Catastrophic Leave Program, and SYS 1216, Miscellaneous Leave Provisions – Jury Duty, Voting, Election Official, Hostage Leave, and Leave Usage upon Death of Family Member. Both revisions were underway before the July 15th UPS integration. Therefore, they did not go through the SYS policy review process but rather the UW System Human Resources review process. As a reminder, the SYS 1200 series (UPS Operational policies) apply to all UW institutions, except UW-Madison.

Please take a few minutes to review the updated policies.

SYS 1214: Catastrophic Leave Program
(Formerly UPS OP: BN 5)

Summary of Policy and Policy Revisions

- The purpose of SYS 1214, Catastrophic Leave Program, is to establish a catastrophic leave program for UW System employees. This program allows employees to donate earned paid leave credits, with the exception of sick leave or compensatory time, to employees who have a catastrophic need in their own or at a different UW institution.
  - Minor revisions were made throughout the policy, including changing “family member” to “immediate family member” in Section 3: Policy Definitions.

(Formerly UPS OP: BN7)

Summary of Policy and Policy Revisions

- The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines granting paid leave for jury duty, voting, and serving as an election official during working hours. This policy also provides for a paid leave of absence in certain circumstances after an employee is held hostage and outlines leave usage upon the death of a family member.
  - Minor revisions were made throughout the policy, including changing the term “family member” to “immediate family member” in Section 1: Policy Purpose, Section 2: Policy Background, and Section 3: Policy Definitions.

The effective date for both policies was the date of approval by President Cross, August 12, 2019.

~ We Will Never Forget ~
Hello Warhawk Family!

As we watch the season change, it is a reminder that everything changes. Job mapping is approaching the deadline of October 24th, benefits enrollment is a busy time [thanks to everyone who participated in the Benefits Fair] during the month of October, and the UW System is in the pre-planning stage for administration transformation that will take many of our day-to-day practices to the cloud. As we embark on the “change” journey, please keep in mind, there are people working behind the scenes. UW-Whitewater is part of a larger system; therefore, it is important to address and embrace change. Have a wonderful and safe October and take a moment to enjoy the beauty that surrounds the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater!

Warhawks Do the Right Thing!

UW Whitewater’s Audit, Risk, Compliance and Ethics Committee (ARCE), comprised of subject matter experts from across the Whitewater campus, have put in place a list of six, user-friendly principles that express our campus commitment to positive interpersonal communication: treat everyone with respect and appreciation regardless of our differences. These principles reinforce our campus’ commitment to a positive environment, supports our Strategic Plan, UW System Policy Workplace Conduct Expectations, and the Wisconsin Administrative Code addressing Conduct on University Lands. Over the next 6 months we will explore one of these principles.

Principle 1: On a user-friendly campus, members of the community understand and act in accordance with the human desire for positive interactions with others. Typical interpersonal behaviors in such an environment reflect and support the following values, applicable without regard to differences in respect to rank, class, age, race, gender, disability, ethnicity, or sexual orientation: respect, courtesy/civility, appreciation, empathy, trust, inclusion, and consultation.

It has been shown that positive social interactions at work are associated with immediate and enduring effects on the cardiovascular, immune and neuroendocrine systems and can build physiological resourcefulness and physical health (Heaphy, 2008).

Nygaele McGeathey from Pearce Center for Professional Communication, Clemson gives us:

4 Tips to Encourage Positive Team Interactions in the Workplace

1. RECEIVE AND PROVIDE FEEDBACK
Don’t take it personally! Your coworkers are working toward the same overarching goal, so if you are approached with constructive criticism to better yourself or your work, take it as a gift and opportunity to grow. Contribute to fostering an environment that promotes the thoughtful exchange of ideas.

2. BE TRANSPARENT
Be open! If your team members feel you withhold information, they might begin to feel a sense of distrust, and that distrust could cause them to be less transparent. When there is not an open line of communication, assumptions are made and mishaps occur that deter the team from their goals.

3. TAKE A BREATHER
Avoid burnout! No one wants to have a breakdown at their workplace. Try small changes such as waking up early enough to eat a balanced breakfast, keeping a stress ball at the desk, and going on lunch break without bringing work along. If these steps aren’t enough and you’re feeling overwhelmed, reach out to team members or your higher up to strategize or redistribute some work. Your coworkers might be happy to help, and your higher up could possibly reorganize your workload. It never hurts to ask!

4. PRACTICE EMPATHY
Be a listener! You aren’t the only one who experiences emotions and circumstances that affect daily operations. Not all coworkers are comfortable divulging personal information in a personal setting, but if you notice something is off and they could use some help, you can be a supportive team member by offering help with work responsibilities or simply displaying more care in your actions. They’ll trust you more, and they reciprocate these efforts in the future.

These are just a few things to practice when working in a collaborative work setting. Take care of yourself and your coworkers, be open to criticism, and keep the lines of communication open!

(McGeathey, 2018)
All Things Immigration: USCIS Updates

ALERT:

On Oct. 11, 2019, judges in three separate cases before U.S. District Courts for the Southern District of New York (PDF, 60 KB), Northern District of California (PDF, 635 KB), and Eastern District of Washington (PDF, 525 KB) enjoined DHS from implementing and enforcing the final rule related to the public charge ground of inadmissibility under section 212(a)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act and postponed the effective date of the final rule until there is final resolution in the cases. Two of the injunctions are nationwide and prevent USCIS from implementing the rule anywhere in the United States. Until final decisions in these cases are issued or the injunction is lifted, Form I-539 filled online is the 2/4/19 version.

Immigration Trivia - Did You Know?

US Customs and Border Protection (CBP) agriculture specialists perform a critical border security role in safeguarding America’s agricultural and natural resources from harmful pests and plant diseases. They have extensive training and experience in the biological sciences and agricultural inspection, inspect tens of thousands of international air passengers, and air and sea cargoes nationally being imported to the United States.

Dr. Jacob Olupona is an immigrant from Nigeria. He is currently professor of African Religious Traditions at Harvard Divinity School. Specifically, he is a noted scholar of indigenous African religions. After coming to the United States, he studied the history of religions at Boston University - the same university attended by Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr, who earned a Ph.D. in systematic theology in 1955. (For more detail, click here.)

Instilled in Dr. Olupona from a very young age was the importance of spreading knowledge. One of his quotations is: “When you educate one person, you educate the whole community.” Dr. Olupona’s research examines the experience of “reverse missionaries” - those immigrants who have come to the United States to establish “African Pentecostals in American congregations, American branches of independent African churches, and indigenous African religious communities in the United States.”

Title & Total Compensation Project: Update

Job Titles and Standard Job Descriptions have been created. Mapping to the UW System Job Framework has also started. Twenty-four Job Families have been identified! Human Resources team members have been meeting with subject matter experts to complete the mapping process by the projected deadline of October 24, 2019.

The new job titles and job descriptions will be posted online during the Employee-Manager Meetings which are tentatively scheduled between December 1, 2019 and February 15, 2020. During these meetings, managers will meet with employees to explain the new job titles and job descriptions, and employees will confirm if new job descriptions accurately reflect actual work performed. A presentation of the August Project Update is available [here].

Hello Warhawk Family!

CONGRATULATIONS to the entire Human Resources and Diversity (HR&D) team! This is the one-year anniversary for the HR&D newsletter. The newsletter is an excellent source of information! I cannot tell you how heartwarming it is when we hear that members of the campus community read the newsletter!

There are so many things going on in the HR&D area – it is a synergistic churn. There are changes as a result of the “Final Ruling” for the Fair Labor Standards Act. The new threshold raises the standard salary level from $455 per week to $684 per week, equivalent to $35,568 per year for a 2080 hour per year worker. “The new thresholds account for growth in employee earnings since the thresholds were last updated in 2004 [USDOL, 2019].” This means that anyone making less than $35,568 per year, who works more than 40 hours per week, must get paid overtime, excluding very few exceptions.

The “Holiday Season” is fast approaching. Please enjoy your time with family and friends and if you are traveling – be safe!

Regards,

HR&D’s Front Desk: I-9 Policy Review and Process

HR&D Follows I-9 Policy and Procedures: Here is the Background and Process

Per Federal law, https://www.uscis.gov/i-9, Form I-9 is used for verifying the identity and employment authorization of individuals hired for employment in the United States. All U.S. employers must ensure proper completion of Form I-9 for each individual they hire for employment in the United States. This includes citizens and noncitizens. On the form, an employee must attest to his or her employment authorization. The employee must also present his or her employer with acceptable documents evidencing identity and employment authorization. The employer must examine the employment eligibility and identity document(s) an employee presents to determine whether the document(s) reasonably appear to be genuine and to relate to the employee and record the document information on the Form I-9. The list of acceptable documents can be found on the last page of the form. Employers must retain Form I-9 for a designated period and make it available for inspection by authorized government officers.

Process:

Upon the first day of employment at UW-Whitewater, if an employee has not completed their I-9 in full within three business days of employment, the employee will be placed on a leave of absence without pay until such time the employee presents to the Office of Human Resources & Diversity completed I-9 documentation.

Completed I-9 are on file for all employees. If a returning employee has a break in service of more than one year (12 months) occurs, the employee must re-verify by providing appropriate documentation within three (3) business days of re-employment. If the break in service is less than one year and deemed necessary (due to no I-9 on file, error on original, etc.) the employee may be required to re-verify and provide documentation.

If anyone has questions, do not hesitate to connect with Ramon Rocha, Sr. (here), HR&D Office Coordinator.

All Things Immigration: USCIS Updates

USCIS Update:

Fee Increase Consistent with the Consumer Price Index

Beginning on Dec. 2, USCIS is adjusting the fee to request premium processing for certain employment-based petitions. The premium processing fee will increase to $1,440 from the current fee of $1,410 for Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, and Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker. This increase, which is done in accordance with the Immigration and Nationality Act, reflects the full amount of inflation from the implementation of the premium processing fee in June 2001 through August 2019 based on the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers (CPI-U). USCIS last increased the fee in 2018. Premium processing is an optional service currently authorized for certain petitioners filing Forms I-129 or I-140. The system allows petitioners to request 15-day processing of these forms if they pay an extra fee. The premium processing fee is paid in addition to the base filing fee and any other applicable fees. It cannot be waived.

Immigrants Who Have Enriched Our US Culture

Congressman Elijah Cummings’ forbears were “forced immigrants,” brought to America as slaves. His parents were sharecroppers in South Carolina on the same land where their forbears worked as slaves. From South Carolina, without any formal schooling, the family moved to Baltimore. Cummings faced many obstacles but, regardless, graduated from Howard University with honors, served in the legislature for 13 years, and was elected to Congress in 1996. Cummings used to relay a story about a Jewish drug store owner, “Doc Friedman,” who employed Cummings during high school and later paid Cummings’ application fee to Howard. While Cummings was in college Doc Friedman would regularly send him a $10 bill with a note saying, “Hang in there.” For the complete article, click here.

Native Americans and Immigration—The First Immigrants

The ancestors of Native Americans crossed the Bering Land Bridge (a narrow strip of land connecting Asia and North America) over 10,000 to 20,000 years ago, after the last ice age, in what some refer to as the first North American immigration. Archeologists discovered clues of the past lives of Native peoples in Wisconsin through excavation of sites. Effigy mounds, mounds in the shape of animals, have been located as burial sites for the early Wisconsin inhabitants. Native Americans represent diverse nations of people who flourished in North America for thousands of years before the arrival of Europeans. The Menominee, Ojibwe (Chippewa), Potawatomi, and Ho-Chunk (Winnebago) peoples are among the original inhabitants of Wisconsin. For the complete article, click link.

Faculty and Academic Staff Leave Reports

Before departing at the end of the semester, please be sure to have your monthly leave reports submitted for September, October, November and December.

The contract period for the Fall semester is 8/21/2019 – 1/4/2020. Therefore, Fall-semester-only employees who earned leave must also submit a leave report for the month of January, 2020.

University Staff – Leave Balances and Carryover Provisions:

University Staff employees earn leave based on the calendar year (1/1 – 12/31). The remaining balance of vacation allocated on 1/1 each year may be carried over on 12/31 for one more year. The carryover is automatic. The carried-over vacation will expire at the end of the second year, unless the employee is eligible to bank leave. Employees eligible to bank vacation have received an email with instructions. Employees who are not yet eligible to bank leave must ensure that any vacation carried over from 2018 is used by 12/31/2019, or it will be lost.

Personal Holiday hours allocated each year on 1/1 do not carry over and must be used by 12/31 or they will be lost. There are four Legal Holidays remaining in 2019: Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, and New Year's Eve. Full-time University Staff employees should currently have an LH balance of 32 hours (pro-rated for part-time employees). Legal Holiday hours do not carry over and must be used by 12/31 or they will be lost.

Maximum Contribution Limits Increasing In 2020 for Tax-Sheltered Annuity (TSA) And Wisconsin Deferred Compensation (WDC) Plans:

The IRS recently announced the 2020 contribution limits for the UW Tax-Sheltered Annuity (TSA) 403(b) Program and the Wisconsin Deferred Compensation (WDC) 457 Program.

In 2020, employees may contribute a basic maximum of $19,500 to the TSA Program. Employees age 50 and over can contribute an additional $6,500 for a total of $26,000. These same limits apply to WDC. Employees can contribute the maximum to both programs for a total of $39,000 (under age 50) or $52,000 (age 50 or older).

Employees with 15 years or more of service with the UW System and have contributed less than an average of $5,000 per year over your UW System employment, may have an additional "catch-up" opportunity with the TSA Program. Contact Human Resources for more information.

Both pre-tax and Roth (after-tax) contributions count towards the annual limits. Note: Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) are a type of retirement account separate from the TSA and WDC Programs and have separate limits.

You may make changes to your TSA payroll deductions through employee self-service on your My UW System Portal.

1. Click on “Launch full app” on the bottom of the “Benefit Information” tile.
2. At the bottom of the page, click on the “Update TSA Deductions” button.
3. Click on the vendor name listed on the “Savings Summary” page.
4. Click on the “Edit” button.

The 3 R’s of Title IX: Recognize, Respond & Report

Many people have heard of the Title IX Education Amendments of 1972 as a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in employment and any federally-funded programs or activities. This section will highlight different aspects of Title IX that are important for the University community to know.

Recognize... The US Department of Education and Office for Civil Rights released Title IX requirements regarding pregnant and parenting students in June 2013. Title IX prohibits discrimination based on pregnancy, childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery from any of these conditions. It also prohibits a school from applying any rule related to a student’s parental, family, or marital status that treats students differently based on their sex.

Respond... The University Health and Counseling Services (UHCS) has employees that provide confidential and free services. Website can be found at: www.uww.edu/uhcs.

Talent & Acquisition Highlights

Title & Total Compensation Update

Dear campus supervisors and leadership staff ~

THANK YOU! We met our deadline! Full review of 100% of the positions on campus by 10/24/19. That was over 1,400 positions! This accomplishment was made possible by our supervisory, management, and leadership staff. It was a joy and honor to work with you; we witnessed great care and concern in ensuring the current position duties were mapped to the appropriate Standard Job Description. Through this interactive process we gained a deeper understanding of the great work being done across UW-Whitewater, and the fantastic dedication and contributions of each and every employee.

Again, thank you to all supervisors, managers, deans, directors and administrative personnel who worked on this project with us and for being engaged and supportive leaders. We are inspired by your commitment to UW-Whitewater’s legacy –

Amy, Victoria, Abby and Kai

What’s Next:
The deadline for position mapping was extended twice to a final deadline of 11/7/19 to allow campuses to complete review and for creation of new Standard Job Descriptions, and feedback from the Project Team. This doesn’t mean our work is complete. The feedback given to the Project Team from our campus and campuses across the state has not all been reviewed. Further communication will occur as we receive new or revised Standard Job Descriptions and as we review how various job families were mapped across our campus. Extension of the mapping deadline has pushed back the overall timeline by a few weeks. The manager-employee meetings will be scheduled to begin after 1/1/20 following further information and instructions that will be provided to managers from Human Resources. The TTC website offers complete information on the project and timeline: Title and Total Compensation Project

UW-W Mapping Process Feedback

“Thank you for your communication and your engagement with me in this process...this process is being implemented very differently across all of the campuses. Whitewater, Madison, and Oshkosh appeared to have the most communication and collaboration with their HR units, while other institutions had limited or no involvement with the mapping. I am very grateful for your approach to this process and feel like it has allowed us to map positions very accurately. Thank you again for this transparent and collaborative process.”

HR&D General Updates and Notes of Appreciation

HR&D is working to ensure that UW-Whitewater policies are in line with UW System policies and position descriptions have been mapped in preparation for supervisor/employee conversations in January. Thank you to all the supervisors who helped the HR Team review more than 1,000 position descriptions. You all made what we thought would be a daunting challenge, one that was fluid and successful in a timely manner!

Campuses are anxiously waiting for the Joint Committee on Employee Relations [JCOER] to schedule the meeting to address the recommended 2+2 increase for eligible employees. To date, a meeting has not been scheduled; however, the HR&D department is ready to act once it is approved.

Thanks to the many supervisors who attended the supervisor training recently. There were a number of questions regarding time-off accruals and what happens to accruals upon retirement and/or resignation. If anyone has additional questions, feel free to reach out to Amy Sexton, Reggie Brown, Stephanie Hartmann, or Connie Putland at HR@uww.edu, or x1024.
