I. Purpose

The purpose of this General Order is to provide guidance and direction on the planning and research functions of the Department.

II. Policy

It is the policy of the UW-Whitewater Police Department (UWWPD) that all planning and research decisions are carried out by the Chief or his/her designee.

III. Procedure

A. The Chief shall be responsible for the management of all planning and research activities related to:

1. The department's role, responsibilities, and relationships; and
2. The department's organization, management, and administration; and
3. The department's personnel structure and process; and
4. The department's law enforcement operations; and
5. The department's operations support; and
6. The department's auxiliary and technical services.

B. The Chief may delegate a planning and research project to any member of the UWWPD, but normally such projects will first be assigned to a member of the supervisory staff.

Department members may undertake research related to specific topics and develop a proposal for the Chief through the appropriate chain-of-command. The Chief shall be responsible for distributing any analytical reports used to support planning and research functions to appropriate personnel.
