Awards

Awards are in order of rank. Awards shall be worn on the uniform in order of rank from top left to bottom right. A certificate of award is given with each and also placed into the personnel file of the award recipient.

Medal of Honor

May be awarded to an individual who voluntarily distinguishes himself or herself conspicuously by gallantry and extraordinary heroism. The act must be in excess of normal demands and of such a nature that the officer was fully aware of the imminent threat to his/her personal safety and acted above and beyond the call of duty at the risk of his or her life.

Valor Ribbon

May be awarded to an individual for a heroic deed and exceptional meritorious conduct involving exemplary courage, risk and danger to his or her personal safety.

Life Saving Ribbon

May be awarded to an individual who performs acts which specifically and directly lead to the saving of a life.

Chief's Ribbon

Is awarded solely at the Chief's discretion to an individual who has displayed extraordinary efforts in the improvement of self, community and/or Department.

Commendation Ribbon

May be awarded to an individual whose performance of a specific duty or within a specific incident rises well above the average and facilitates a positive image of the Department.

Education Ribbon

May be awarded to an individual who reaches educational benchmarks. The ribbon is awarded for the completion of a bachelor's degree. A Silver Star is added to the ribbon upon completion of a master's degree or equivalent. The Silver Star is replaced with a Gold Star upon completion of a doctoral degree or its equivalent. A copy of the diploma is required.

Advanced Law Enforcement Education Ribbon

May be awarded to an individual who successfully completes a 400+ hour university credited advanced Law Enforcement Course. (I.e. Northwestern, FBI academy, Southern Police Institute) No devices will be given in this category.
