

Jefferson County Literacy Council

Mission:

Develop a better community through literacy

Vision:

To help learners defeat literacy challenges

We Believe:

*Literacy and communication build strong communities
Learners hold personal responsibility in their learning
Trained volunteers provide quality, cost-effective services*

Potential CBL Partnerships:

JCLC is interested in forming lasting partnerships that serve our mission and vision by strengthen the literacy skills of community residents and advocating for literacy initiatives. We believe strong communities are comprised of individuals who have strong literacy skills and are as engaged in the workforce and community as they are able.

The possibilities for partnerships are tremendous!

Potential CBL Partnerships:

In support of the JCLC mission partnerships may include:

Volunteerism is at the heart of our organization. Since our founding, volunteers have advanced our mission by serving by becoming trained instructors, tutoring adult learners, lending their expertise as board members, tackling special projects, supporting fundraising efforts, translating/interpreting, creating marketing materials and supporting the day-to-day operations of the organization.
