

2022 Student Juried Exhibition

Meet the Juror

UW-Whitewater Department of Art and Design welcomes juror Roberto Torres Mata, a first-generation artist located in Madison, Wisconsin. He explores the complexities of migration from human and animal movements by using metaphors that further understand the issues of migration at the border. Torres Mata graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison for his Master's degree and Masters of Fine Arts in Printmaking, he earned his Bachelor's degree in graphic design from Western Illinois University of Macomb Illinois.

Awards

First Place

April Wright

Second Place

Emily Omernik

Third Place

Amy Nandory

Excellence in Printmaking

Aliyah Noh

Excellence in Painting

Reba Wallin

Excellence in Metalsmithing

Gabrielle Clark

Excellence in Sculpture

Isaac Stern

Clinton H. Fuget Award for Excellence in Darkroom Photography

Hannah Gruener

Best of Show

Lynsey Singkofer

Honorable Mention Awards

Gabby Clark, Madelene Crum, Carolyn Ellefson, Emily Gibson, Marie Medic, Maddie Miller, Emily Omernik, Holly Peterson, Lily Regalia, Lynsey Singkofer, Isaac Stern, and April Wright

Thank to our generous donors

Otto Frei, Artist and Craftsman Supply, NASCO, Blick Art Materials, and JJ Ottero