In this unusual time we live in, something we are profoundly grateful for is MUSIC. The Department of Music is shaking up Gala this year. It’s in November and it’s digital, but we are still serving up a musical feast with all the fixings – featuring works from current UW-Whitewater music students, faculty and more. This year, we are extra thankful for our community – you make what we do possible. Tune in for an evening of great music and generosity as we raise funds for student scholarships.
