

- CALLING ALL HISTORY MAJORS - YOU ARE INVITED to the
UW-WHITEWATER
HISTORY DEPARTMENT
SENIOR RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Tuesday, May 14
6:00-7:30pm

Meet others on the history major path.
Discover what Senior Seminar is really all about.
Find out what fellow history majors have been researching.

ATTEND ONE OF THE FOLLOWING PANELS

Panel A: Reforming America in the Early 20th Century [LT 5025]

Shawna Maasz: Cutting the Fat: A Gendered Analysis of the Origins of America's Weight Obsessive Culture

Christopher Haise: Selling Socialism: The Milwaukee Social-Democratic Party Campaign Strategy and the 1910 Election

Karl Mueller: Women in the Wisconsin Ku Klux Klan in the 1920s

James Semcken: Wisconsin's Leadership in Ending Prohibition

Panel B: Reimagining American Society in the End of the 20th Century [LT 4012]

Courtney Kropf: The Chicago Tribune and the Great Chicago Fire of 1871

Jason Liebovich: Massachusetts Welfare Rights' Organization: A Battle for Grant Programs, 1968-1972

Carly Eichner: The Homecoming Experience of Vietnam Veterans

Noah Rusch: In the Battle of Fair v. Equal; Money Always Wins: A Study of the Impact of New Special Education in the Stoughton Area School District

CONFERENCE FORMAT:

- ❖ Concurrent Sessions (multiple panels at the same time).
- ❖ Presentation will be 12-15 minutes each; addressing –research topic and question, research process, research sources, thesis, samples of supporting evidence, research triumphs & tribulations.
- ❖ Faculty Chair and Commenter will introduce each presenter and lead post-presentation Q & A