

Interested in music, management, and entrepreneurship? Join us for a discussion with Madeleine Mitchell. An accomplished violinist and recording artist, she created the Red Violin Festival, the first international festival celebrating the violin across the arts.

Making the Most of Music and the Arts: How Creativity can Kickstart Your Dreams

September 29, 2026
3:00pm - 4:00pm
Hyland Hall 2307

For a sample of Madeleine's work, see her You Tube video. This will be a great opportunity to learn about managing creative careers, including nonprofits, and how they can support your creative endeavors.
