

COMMUNICATION SCIENCES & DISORDERS

A Beautiful Blend of Science, Service, & Language

THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

UW-Whitewater offers a comprehensive academic and clinical education program for graduate students. The graduate program includes extensive on-campus and off-site clinical experiences that culminate in the requisite master's degree for practice as a state licensed and American Speech–Language–Hearing Association (ASHA) certified speech-language pathologist.

WHY WHITEWATER?

Faculty Availability & Small Class Sizes

- Easily Reach Faculty with Any Questions You May Have!

Safest College Campus in Wisconsin

According to <http://www.uww.edu/news/archive/2019-07-best-value>

Affordable Tuition

- "Best value to earn a college degree in UW System"
According to <http://www.uww.edu/news/archive/2019-07-best-value>

Ensured Clinical Experiences

- Faculty Select Placement Sites, so Students Don't Have To!
- 25 Observation Hours - included in undergraduate classes

100% Employment Rate

- 100% Employment Rate within One Year of Graduation
Based on UWW Graduate Student Outcomes, since 2014

100% Exam Pass Rate

- 100% Praxis Examination Pass Rate of Graduate Students
Based on UWW Graduate Student Outcomes, since 2014

APPLICATION DEADLINE

February 1st

STILL HAVE QUESTIONS?

- Find more information on the UW-Whitewater COMDIS website:
- Contact our Graduate Program Coordinator Dr. Lynn Gilbertson at: gilbertl@uww.edu

