

AUGUST 25 - 29, 2019

Future Teachers Program Summer Institute 2019

The Future Teacher Program serves students interested in the teaching profession who self identify as part of underrepresented populations, include, but not limited to: race other than caucasian, gender identity or expression, first generation students, students with disabilities, students who are DACA eligible, or students receiving financial assistance.

The program also serves any student interested in high demand teaching areas such as:

Biology Education

Mathematics Education

Special Education

Chemistry Education

English as a Second Language

Library Media K-12

Business Education

Early Childhood Education

Spanish Education

Institute Objectives

- Develop a peer group
- Learn about UW-W campus, services and college admissions
- Strengthen college readiness skills

Institute Goals

- Increase student retention and graduation rates
- Increase the diversity of students majoring in education
- Increase the number of students graduating in high demand areas

Institute Activities

- Participate in college success workshops
- Participate in fun, interactive & recreational learning activities
- Participate in personal and professional workshops and community service projects

Eligibility

- High school seniors and/or transfer students admitted to the University of Wisconsin- Whitewater, fall 2019, with a declared education major (see above)
- Students are required to complete the online application process. Once all available slots are filled, students will be placed on a waiting list. Early application is highly recommended.

Lodging

Students will move into their assigned residence hall the first day of the Summer Institute program August 25.

<http://www.uww.edu/coeps/offices-services/ftp/siapplication>

Program Cost

Program participation is FREE!

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JUNE 28, 2019

For More Information Contact:

Future Teacher Program
Office: 262-472-1644
Email: coeftp@uww.edu
<http://www.uww.edu/coeps/officeservices/ftp>

University of Wisconsin
Whitewater

College of Education and Professional Studies