

2022-2023 Special Circumstances Appeal Form

Purpose: The Financial Aid Department recognizes that you may have extenuating circumstances that affect your financial situation. If you believe the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) does not reflect an accurate financial picture, you may submit this request to have your FAFSA reviewed. The following are examples of extenuating circumstances: layoffs, reduction of income or benefits, unusual medical and dental expenses, supporting other relatives, elementary and secondary school costs, child-care and dependent-care costs.

Requirements:

- You must have submitted the FAFSA for 2022-2023. This can be done online at www.fafsa.gov.
- This completed form. Note that this form and all required documentation must be submitted no later than 30 days prior to the end of the enrollment period.
- If you did not utilize the IRS Data Retrieval Tool when completing the FAFSA, include a copy of the student’s and parents’ 2020 Tax Transcripts (or a signed copy of the 2020 Federal Tax Return) and all W-2 forms.
- A completed Verification Worksheet, available at <https://www.uww.edu/financialaid/forms>
- A typed, dated, and signed narrative detailing the circumstances that is leading to this request. Be specific- provide dates and clearly identify the person to whom the narrative refers.

Upon receipt of all required documentation, appeals will be reviewed by the Financial Aid Office to determine if the circumstances comply with the Department of Education’s regulations governing special circumstances appeals. During peak processing times, please allow 4 - 6 weeks for processing.

By signing this form,

- I give permission to the Financial Aid Office to verify any information that I provide on this form. I understand that this verification may include a request for my tax documents.
- I certify that all of the information provided on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge.
- I understand that if I purposely give false or misleading information on this form, I am liable for cancellation or repayment of all or part of my financial aid.
- I understand that reporting a Special Circumstance does not guarantee a recalculation of my EFC and/or an increase in financial aid funding.
