Your application has been selected for review in a process called Verification. Since your spouse indicated on the FAFSA that they did not file federal taxes for 2021, the Financial Aid Office must verify this information. Please have your spouse complete this worksheet and return it to the Financial Aid Office.

- Did your spouse file a federal income tax return for 2021? Tax returns include the 2021 IRS Form 1040 (including schedules), a tax return from Puerto Rico or a foreign tax return.

Check one: _____ YES _____ NO

- If your spouse answered NO to #1, they must do the following:

- List employers and/or other sources of income in 2021 and the amount of money from each employer or source of income. Sources of income include employment, Social Security, child support received, TANF benefits, etc. If you had no income, list "N/A" in all columns. Spouse will need to provide copies of all 2021 W-2 forms to the Financial Aid Office.

Employer/Source of Income	2021 Earnings	W-2 Attached (mark "X")

- Submit a Verification of Non-filing Letter from the IRS. To obtain this online, go to <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript>. To order this by mail, complete Form 4506-T, which can be found at <http://www.uww.edu/financialaid/forms>. Complete steps 1-4, check the box in #7, Verification of Non-filing and in #9, use 12/31/2021 as the date. Mail or fax the form based on your state of residence. Once you receive the Non-filing letter from the IRS, please submit it to us.

If you have attempted to obtain the Verification of Non-filing Letter from the IRS, but were unable to obtain it, please sign the statement below and on the back of this form.

- If your spouse answered YES to #1, they must provide the tax information to the Financial Aid Office. They can do this in one of two ways:
 - Go to fafsa.gov and log in using your FSA ID and password. Your spouse can retrieve tax data directly from the IRS. If the FAFSA indicates your spouse is not eligible for this process, please go to step B.
 - Request a tax transcript from the Internal Revenue Service and submit this transcript to the Financial Aid Office. Go to <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript>.
