

University of Wisconsin-Whitewater
Curriculum Proposal Form #8

Administrative Action

Description of Action: Limit Comdis 700 level courses to students admitted to the Graduate Program in Communication Sciences and Disorders

Initiator of Action: Scott Bradley

Department(s) Affected: Communication Sciences and Disorders

College(s) Affected: Education

Other Programs Affected: n/a

Proposal Information: (Procedures can be found at <http://acadaff.uww.edu/Handbook/Procedures-Form8.htm>)

Change the following paragraph as found in the Graduate Catalog.

From:

The graduate program is designed for completion in two years including two summers for students with an undergraduate degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders. UW-Whitewater undergraduates who are accepted for early admission may finish the graduate program in one year including two summers. Full-time enrollment is 12 credits during the academic year and 9 credits during the summer. Comprehensive examinations, clinical performance reviews, and portfolio presentations are an integral aspect of determining academic and clinical competence and must be successfully completed for the degree.

To:

The graduate program is designed for completion in two years including two summers for students with an undergraduate degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders. UW-Whitewater undergraduates who are accepted for early admission may finish the graduate program in one year including two summers. Full-time enrollment is 12 credits during the academic year and 9 credits during the summer. Only students admitted to the graduate program may enroll in 700 level courses. Exceptions, e.g. professionals seeking continuing education, may be granted by the Graduate Program Coordinator. Comprehensive examinations, clinical performance reviews, and portfolio presentations are an integral aspect of determining academic and clinical competence and must be successfully completed for the degree.

Reasons for Action (include whether the action was recommended by any review body, if appropriate):

This change is needed to manage graduate enrollment.

Staffing and Budgetary Impacts: None