I. Detailed explanation of changes (use FROM/TO format)

FROM:

Practicum students provide individual and group counseling services to students and other community members in the counseling lab. The counseling students receive individual and group supervision each week. This is a time to develop and refine counseling skills while providing a service to the community. A handbook including policies and procedures specific to the lab will be given to each student participating in the practicum experience.

Prereq: Admission to the counselor education program or consent of instructor.

TO:

Practicum students provide individual, couple, family and group counseling services to students and other community members in the counseling lab. Students must complete supervised practicum experiences that total a minimum of 100 clock hours, including 40 hours of direct counseling service. Practicum students receive individual and/or triadic supervision and group supervision each week. This is a time to develop and refine counseling skills while providing a service to the community.

Prereq: COUNSED 718, COUNSED 721, COUNSED 722, and COUNSED 751 and consent of the department.

II. Justification for action

Changes have been made to clarify the focus of the course and to update the language to more accurately represent the present terminology in the counseling field.
