Proposal Information: (Procedures for form#8)

Move all graduate and undergraduate programs offered by the Department of Occupational & Environmental Safety & Health (OESH) from COEPS to COBE. Programs to be transferred include the Bachelor of Science in Occupational Safety major and its three emphases, Construction Safety, Occupational Ergonomics and Environmental Management, two undergraduate minor programs, Occupational Safety and Environmental Management, the Master of Science in Environmental Safety & Health (formerly MS in Safety), and three post-baccalaureate certificates, Construction Safety, Occupational Ergonomics and Driver's Education. The transfer is to be effective in fall 2014.

Reasons for Action (include whether the action was recommended by any review body, if appropriate):

The OESH faculty and department chair, deans from both colleges and the Provost, have been working this past year towards moving the OESH Department and its degree programs from the COEPS to COBE. This administrative action will formalize the movement of the degree programs.

Staffing and Budgetary Impacts:

None. The movement of lines and budget will be reflected in the 2014-2015 budget. But there is no net effect, only movement from one college to another.
