

Dual Degree Language for Graduate Catalog

Applying Graduate Coursework from a Previously Earned Masters' Degree toward Additional Graduate Degrees or Programs

Students desiring to earn a second master's degree or additional graduate credentials can request up to 12 credits of previous graduate coursework be applied toward another program's requirements. Individual programs may accept fewer credits. For graduate certificates, the number of credits allowed from previously earned coursework will be determined by the program, but in general should be no more than 40% of the required coursework.
