

HONORS 498

EXPLORING THE WORLD

A sample of 6 varying courses and subjects on campus!

Sept. 9th Self-Representation in Art

This class will be at 3PM in an art studio and will focus on exploring the self through hands-on artistic means.

Instructor: Greg Porcaro

Oct. 21st Financial Savvy

This class introduces students to financial literacy in terms of saving, investing, repaying loans, and/or credit scores, etc.

Instructor: Dave Welsch

Sept. 23rd Ecocritical Concerns

Prairie walk, perhaps with seed collection, and a discussion about pollinators, prairies, and the role of humans as part of an ecosystem

Instructor: Wes Enterline

Nov. 4th Refugees: What You Need to Know

Afghan refugees have begun arriving in western Wisconsin. Now is a good opportunity to get to know the refugee neighbors living around us.

Instructor: Eun Young Jang

Oct. 7th Geological Hazards

Geological hazards, such as earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, landslides, etc., frequently impact global society. This course will introduce students to the processes causing these hazards, and ways people can address those.

Instructor:
Juk Bhattacharyya

Nov. 18th Creative Nonfiction: the Personal & the Universal

Students will learn various strategies of creative nonfiction to mobilize the events of their lives toward making larger arguments about the culture.

Instructor:
Barrett Swanson

1 CREDIT, S/NC
SIX CLASSES, EVERY OTHER FRIDAY
10:00 AM-11:30 AM (EXCEPT SEP. 9TH)

Please contact
kamt@uww.edu for additional information

