Note: Honors students are defined as degree-seeking undergraduate students currently enrolled at UW-Whitewater, who have enrolled in at least one honors course at UW-Whitewater during their undergraduate career. Participation in the UW-Whitewater Honors Program is by invitation or application only, and it is a prerequisite for enrollment in an honors course at UW-Whitewater. Only active honors students are included in this report. "Active Honors Students" refers to degree-seeking undergraduate students who were enrolled in classes as of the October census day for the academic year indicated and have earned honors credits; this population also includes new students who are enrolled in honors courses in their first semester at UW-Whitewater. The October Census day is determined by the Registrar's Office and the Honors Program director. Enrollment includes study away students.
