General Goal: To foster friendships and respect for different perspectives while engaging in a learning opportunity. The project will involve students and employees at UW-Whitewater and aims to create an exchange of life-skills that make life enjoyable but are not necessarily pursued in a formal education.
Planned Actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop questionnaire for students and employees. • Recruit university employees and students to commit to participating and collect data to use for matching partners. • Match life-learning partners. • Hold mixer to launch program and introduce the partners. • Evaluate the program at the end of the spring 2015 semester.
Deliverables, Completed Actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research — The team researched current offerings on and off campus in order to gather information that we used to make final revisions to our plan. We also conducted research into cross-generational learning and shared our findings with the team. • Surveys and promotional efforts — The team launched initial promotional efforts for the surveys and the project using the May Leap workshops as a forum. (Completed: May 19, 2014)
