

Getting Started in Community Based Learning

Lessons from UW Madison's Office of Service Learning and Community Based Research

Wednesday, October 19th • Noon - 1:00 pm • UC 259A

Dr. Tess Arenas will discuss best practices in incorporating community based learning in the classroom. Some of the themes she will address are how best to establish effective community partnerships and the impact that service learning can have on student's civic engagement. Dr. Arenas has been director of the Office of Service Learning and Community Based Research since 2005. Prior to this appointment, she worked in the UW System Administration and was the author of the UW System's Plan 2008: Educational Excellence through Race/Ethnic Diversity.

Facilitator: Tess Arenas, Director of Service Learning at UW-Madison

Lunch Included

RSVP Deadline is October 12th

To reserve a place, please contact the LEARN Center:

262-472-5242 or learn@uww.edu

Register online at: <http://signup.uww.edu> using your Net-ID

The workshop is listed under "LEARN Center."

