PRESENTED BY:

What are the most prestigious journals in my field in which to publish? What are their acceptance rates? How do I contact journal publishers? Is there any way I can have research on my topic sent directly to me? Do you know any easy ways to create a bibliography?

Whether you're trying to publish in a journal or magazine, we've got some tips for you!

This session will cover databases such as ISI Journal Citation Reports and Cabell's Directories of Publishing Opportunities, citation and bibliography tools such as EndNote Web and Zotero, and journal alert services.
